Item 5. Full Description of Material Change

The Issuer reports that they are extraordinarily pleased to announce that Mr. Harold M. Wolkin, CFA, MAEcon, respected Investment banker and financial analyst has joined the Company's Board of Directors.

Harold Wolkin was a managing director in the Diversified Industries Group of BMO Capital Markets, a major Canadian investment dealer until January 31, 2008. He is an accomplished, trusted and successful investment banker and financial analyst with over 30 years of experience and success.

"We are extraordinarily pleased to welcome someone of Mr. Wolkin's calibre to the Grandview Board of Directors," says Grandview President & CEO Paul Sarjeant. "His capital markets experience will without question be a major asset to the Company and, if past performance is any indication of the scope of Harold's talents and abilities then his position on our board will most certainly contribute greatly to our success."

Mr. Wolkin is a man of many accomplishments but few words. On his appointment to the Grandview Board of Directors he says simply, "I am delighted to join the Grandview team and excited to contribute to the company's growth initiatives and future success."
