TIM: ADRIAN CALAZA JOINS THE GROUP

Adrian Calaza appointed as Chief Financial Officer

Roma, 1 March 2022

TIM informs that, as already communicated on 14 February, as of today Adrian Calaza joins the Group reporting directly to Pietro Labriola, CEO and General Manager, taking over from Giovanni Ronca as Chief Financial Officer.

Adrian Calaza will assume the role of Executive responsible for preparing the corporate accounting documents of TIM, once the work linked to the Company's 2021 financial statements is complete.

Adrian Calaza doesn't hold any company ordinary shares. His Curriculum Vitae is attached.

The company's thanks go to Giovanni Ronca, who leaves the Group, for the contribution he has made, together with its best wishes for upcoming professional challenges.

Giovanni Ronca holds 150.000 company ordinary shares.

Adrian CALAZA

54 years old, after studying at the University of Belgrano in Argentina, obtained a Masters in Business Administration in 1997 from CEMA in Buenos Aires.

After gaining experience in companies such as IBM and Edenor S.A. in Buenos Aires, in 1999 he joined the TIM Group in the Latin American Department of the International Division, embarking on an important professional career holding positions of responsibility in different countries in South America.

In 2000 he was hired as CEO of Entel S.A. Bolivia, an integrated fixed-mobile company which was part of the Group at the time; in 2004, he transferred to Brazil to take on the role first of CFO of Telecom Italia Latam, and then in 2006 Head of Finance and Investment Control at TIM Brasil.

In 2007 he returned to Argentina and in 2009 was appointed CFO of Telecom Argentina (NYSE:TEO), where he carried out this responsibility until the latter was sold by the Group in 2016. Immediately afterwards, he was appointed CFO of TIM Brasil (NYSE:TIMB) and played an active role in the transformation of the company, where he remained until August 2021 when he moved on to assume responsibility as CFO of the international industrial group Arcor based in Argentina.
