Community Support Network, Inc. Selects Identillect's Delivery Trust® to Secure Sensitive Email Data

Delivery Trust® Email Encryption Solution Provides NPO's the Simplest and Most Cost-Effective Way to Ensure Compliant Communication when Handling Sensitive Client Data

IRVINE, Calif., Jan 2, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Identillect Technologies Corp. (the "Company" or "Identillect") (TSX-V:ID) (OTCQB:IDTLF) (Frankfurt:8ID), a trusted leading provider of HIPAA compliant email security, announced today the Community Support Network, Inc. (CSN), has selected Delivery Trust® to enable private, secure email communications with clients, their families and other agency stakeholders.

CSN provides a wide range of day-time support for people with developmental disabilities. Deb Dove, Executive Director of CSN states, "Implementation of Delivery Trust to secure our digital communications is key to ensuring the safety and integrity of the sensitive data entrusted to our organization."

In the NetDilligence 2016 Cyber Claims Study, non-profit organizations (NPOs) ranked in the top five industries most affected by hackers, highlighting the pressing need for digital security measures. NPOs typically store and transmit tremendous amounts of personal identification information (PII) which make for highly attractive targets for cybercriminals.

Identillect CEO, Todd Sexton states, "The non-profit sector has a very real and pressing need for digital security. As an organization, we aim to truly serve this industry by providing affordable, secure solutions to their digital security needs. CSN serves as a great example to the NPO community on a proactive approach to cybersecurity. Identillect is pleased to be the security provider to CSN as they are providing a vital service to the community."
