

AMERICAN MANGANESE INC. ENTERS INTO FINDER'S FEE AGREEMENT WITH CPM GROUP TO LICENSE PATENTED PROPRIETARY TECHNOLOGY

December 10, 2015 - Vancouver, BC

Larry W. Reaugh, President and Chief Executive Officer of American Manganese Inc. ("American Manganese" or "AMI" or "the Company") (TSX.V: AMY; Pink Sheets: AMYZF; Frankfurt: 2AM), is pleased to announce that the Company has entered into a Finder's Fee Agreement with CPM Group LLC's Financial Advisory division to introduce persons or entities who may enter into an arrangement to license the use of the Company's proprietary hydrometallurgical process to produce chemical manganese dioxide, electrolytic manganese dioxide, and electrolytic manganese metal from manganese-bearing resources; or recycle lithium ion batteries to recover lithium or other constituent metals. The term of the agreement is for one year from the signing date of the agreement.

As compensation, the Company shall pay to CPM a fee for any licensing arrangement consummated with a licensee during the term of the agreement or the two year period afterwards.

American Manganese currently holds patents in the U.S., China and South Africa for its proprietary process to recover high-purity manganese metals from low-grade resources and has patents pending in other jurisdictions around the world.
