INFO TOUCH FEATURED IN BLOOMBERG TELEVISION INTERVIEW
AT PC EXPO

BURNABY, BC, July 5, 2000. Hamed Shahbazi, Chairman and CEO of Info Touch Technologies www.infotouch.net (CDNX: IFT) announces the airing of an interview conducted at PC Expo, New York City. Bloomberg Television's TechLine show will air the week of July 2 – 8, 2000 across the United States syndicated on ABC Television, Fox Television and PBS stations. The interview will also be streamed on Bloomberg's web site, www.bloomberg.com.

The interview conducted in-booth at PC Expo featured footage of an Info Touch kiosk, along with close-up footage of E-commerce applications of Surfnet Premiere, and a question and answer session with Hamed Shahbazi. Remarking on the interview, Hamed said, "the Bloomberg crew was attracted to the Info Touch kiosk application. With over 700 exhibitors at PC Expo, Info Touch's E-commerce application combined with the introduction of the Internet Cash and Dialpad.com, made the Info Touch booth one that generated heavy traffic. Through this traffic and our product performance, we were also interviewed by Radio WallStreet.com".

Radio Wallstreet.com aired on June 30, 2000 a 15-minute interview between Hamed Shahbazi and Jason Richelson of Internet Cash. Investor Broadcast Network's proprietary news service, RadioWallStreet.com, is the market leader in the Internet audio streaming of in depth financial analysis and commentary. During the interview, questions surrounded issues such as global development strategy, new business development, technology delivery and Info Touch's new relationship with InterTech Group.

Radio Wallstreet.com delivers the largest audience of investors and analysts on the Internet with complete, in-depth and interactive coverage of the most important news to the individual and institutional investor. RadioWallStreet.com is a dynamic combination of breaking news, analyst round-tables, CEO interviews, industry expert commentary and complete coverage of industry-wide events. Other interviewees from PC Expo include Jeff Stewart, CEO of Hewlett-Packard Company, Bruce Albertson, President and CEO of Iomega Corporation, Srivats Sampeth, President of McAfee.com Corporation and, Rosemary Thomas, Vice President of Xerox Corporation.
