Item 5. Full Description of Material Change

Vancouver, Canada – June 26, 2000: Mr. Iain Drummond, President and CEO of Imagis Technologies Inc. ("Imagis") is pleased to announce that Imagis' premiere law enforcement software CABS™, its Computerized Arrest and Booking System, was purchased by the Guilford Police Department in Guilford, Connecticut, USA.

Upon implementation, the primary objective is to configure CABS™ MOBILE in Guilford's police cruisers to facilitate intelligence gathering and pre-booking of arrestees. Guilford will have a site license of CABS™ allowing for department-wide PC access for quick and easy sharing of arrestee and incident-based images and data throughout the department network. The immediate access to arrestee records will allow for positive identification of repeat offenders much faster than the existing procedure and will be a positive factor in serving the community of Guilford.
