SonicStrategy Expands Exposure to 38.8 Million S Tokens Across Staking, Delegation, and DeFi Holdings, Reinforcing Institutional Alignment and Long-Term Yield Strategy

TORONTO, ON / ACCESS Newswire / August 18, 2025 / SonicStrategy Inc., the blockchain infrastructure subsidiary of Spetz Inc. (CSE:SPTZ)(OTCQB:DBKSF) and one of the first publicly traded treasury companies focused on the Sonic blockchain, is pleased to announce a major milestone in the growth of its institutional-grade validator and overall asset footprint within the Sonic ecosystem.

Following its June 25, 2025 update, SonicStrategy has seen a 158% increase in total network exposure, reflecting accelerating institutional and community confidence in the Company's infrastructure and strategy. As of today, the SonicStrategy validator has received a total of 33,481,484 S tokens in delegation, including:

- 30,456,918.85 S tokens delegated by third-party holders, with strategic support from Sonic Labs and Beets), two cornerstone participants in the Sonic network.
- 3,024,565.14 S tokens self-delegated by SonicStrategy, reinforcing its alignment with the network's success and long-term performance.

In addition, SonicStrategy holds approx 5.3m S tokens across DeFi strategies and treasury accounts, further increasing its effective exposure. Taken together, the Company now has total exposure to 38.8 million S tokens, making it one of the most significant players in the Sonic ecosystem.

"We're incredibly proud to have the support of key ecosystem players like Sonic Labs and Beets, alongside a wide base of individual delegators," said Mitchell Demeter, CEO of SonicStrategy. "This level of validation affirms the credibility and performance of our infrastructure while expanding our role as a core participant in the Sonic network."

The SonicStrategy validator, listed as "SonicStrategy | CSE: SPTZ | OTCQB: DBKSF", plays a foundational role in securing the Sonic blockchain while generating daily staking and DeFi rewards. These earnings contribute directly to the Company's revenue generation and broader digital asset treasury strategy.

SonicStrategy intends to continue scaling its validator operations while actively supporting the growth of the Sonic ecosystem through validator infrastructure, liquidity provisioning, and strategic DeFi deployments.

The Company also continues to hold 3.71 BTC as part of its broader digital asset treasury strategy, and approximately $2,000,000 CAD.
