OF THE SECURITIES ACT

ITEM 1 REPORTING ISSUER:

Batrix Investments Ltd.
12004-111 Avenue
Edmonton, AB T5G 0E6

ITEM 2 DATE OF MATERIAL CHANGE:

May 15, 2000

ITEM 3 NEWS RELEASE

Canadian Stockwatch- May 15, 2000

ITEM 4 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL CHANGE

Batrix Investments Ltd. has acquired all of the shares of Strydon Holdings Inc., operating as Accurate Office Systems of Edmonton, Alberta..

ITEM 5 FULL DESCRIPTION OF MATERIAL CHANGE:

Batrix has acquired, subject only to Exchange approval, all of the shares of Strydon Holdings Inc., carrying on business as "Accurate Office Systems", from Richard and Yvonne Schopff of Edmonton, Alberta. The purchase price of $250,000 comprises $30,000 cash and 220,000 Class A Common Shares of Batrix at an ascribed price of $1.00 per share.

Accurate Office Systems is a well-established office products company which has operated in Edmonton for the past 27 years. It is the exclusive distributor of the Lanier line of copiers and facsimile machines and also provides products and services for office automation, computer networking and document management through other major manufacturers.

Richard Schopff has entered into a three year employment agreement and will continue to provide day to day management for Accurate.

In addition to doubling the gross revenues of Batrix, management believes that the acquisition of Accurate will enable Batrix to provide both existing and new customers with a broader base of products and services for a "Total Technology Solution" to the customers' needs.

Batrix, operating as "Maxim Systems", has been providing computer hardware and internet services to schools, governments and large corporations.
