News Release

CDNX Trading Symbol: VCS.U

Velocity Becomes Voyus

HAMILTON, BERMUDA, June 9, 2000 - Velocity Computer Solutions, Ltd. (CDNX:VCS.U), a leading provider of integrated support and networking solutions, has today changed its name to Voyus Ltd. The Company's common shares will commence trading today on the Canadian Venture Exchange under the new name at opening of trading. The Company will retain its trading symbol, VCS.U.

Shawn Chute, President and CEO of Voyus Canada Inc. explains, "Our new name represents what we do for our clients - think ahead of the problem. The origin of the name Voyus is Latin and it means 'to see' - very appropriate for a company whose core promise is technology foresight".

A little more than two years old, Voyus has grown to become one of Canada's leading technology solutions providers, servicing customers in Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Toronto and Montreal. The company specializes in providing technical support to small to medium sized businesses - 24hours a day, seven days a week.

With the deployment of its eSupport services, Voyus now offers customers the option of remote network and PC support, in addition to the onsite and voice support services that have earned the company a solid reputation as technology's 911 response team. By delivering remote access service packages, Voyus can now provide preventive and maintenance care even more efficiently, which translates into economic savings for clients. It also means customers have more options for customized service packages built to satisfy individual company needs.

About Voyus

Voyus is a leading provider of full-service, e-Support solutions that reduce overall technology support costs for its small to medium-sized business customers. The company has integrated a complete family of web-based, phone-based and onsite computer and network help technologies that are a "single point of contact" for customers' entire information technology (IT) needs. Voyus' service infrastructure is continually evolving, and now encompasses more than 175 dedicated IT professionals in cities across Canada.
