5. Full Description of Material Change:

The Board of Directors has approved the signing of a binding letter of intent with the University of Toronto Press, under the terms of which UTP will acquire Broadview's lists in the Social Sciences. The final total purchase price is subject to certain variables, but will be between $1.0 and $1.2 million. The transaction has also been approved by the UTP Board, and is likely to take effect on or about May 1, 2008. The transaction also involves the hiring by UTP of approximately half a dozen Broadview employees associated closely with marketing and with editorial acquisitions on the Social Sciences side. That group will include Michael Harrison, who has been Broadview's President and CEO since 2005. Don LePan, President of Broadview from its founding in 1985 through to 2005, will reassume that position.
