4. Summary of Material Change:

   Collicutt Hanover announced it will be assuming responsibility for direct sales of new compression equipment effective March 1, 2003. This role had previously been the responsibility of Hanover Company through its wholly owned subsidiary, Collicutt Hanover Compression, under a sales agency arrangement.

   "This step represents a natural progression in the strategic development of Collicutt Hanover Services as we continue to focus on leveraging our core competencies and providing maximum value to our shareholders. The structure of our sales function for compressor units is evolving as we endeavor to continuously improve how we respond to the needs of our valued customers," stated Steven Collicutt, President and CEO of Collicutt Hanover.

   Concurrent with this change, Collicutt Hanover announced the following organizational appointments:

Scott Collicutt	Vice President - Sales
Mike Crawford	Manager - Domestic Sales
Gordon Weir	Manager - International Sales
Glenn Brunner	Manager - Applications & Estimating
