

Biosign Announces Director Resignation

/CNW/ - Biosign Technologies Inc. (TSXV: BIO) ("Biosign" or the "Company") announces that effective January 6, 2016 Brian Neill has tendered his resignation from the Board of Biosign. He states "it is with reluctance that I am now leaving the Board of Biosign, as so much work has been done turning the company around into a Software as Service Company with a revenue stream from its operations in Germany. However I am also involved in a software company in the health care industry so to prevent any perceived or potential conflicts of interest, I thought it prudent to resign at this time."

TORONTO, Jan. 11, 2016 Dr. Gross, CEO of Biosign has thanked Brian for his time on the Board, noting that he received no remuneration during his tenure, and states "we will now actively recruit for other suitably equipped directors to help us grow this company in our chosen specialty field, providing software that enables better care to be provided for people in their own homes."

Biosign notes that at present the software Aiomed is operating in Germany in care facilities run by Caritas, Germany's largest Health care operator.

About Biosign Technologies Inc. (TSXV: BIO) Biosign is a developer of world class healthcare software solutions targeted at the Home Care markets with operations in Canada and Germany.
