FOCUSED ON EXPLORING ATLANTIC CANADA

VANCOUVER, British Columbia – July 29, 2021 - GREAT ATLANTIC RESOURCES CORP. (TSXV.GR) (the “Company” or “Great Atlantic”) is pleased to announce the addition of Dr Karsten Eden to the technical team, as an exclusive strategic advisor for the purpose of target generation related specifically to the Golden Promise Gold Project In Newfoundland.

“We look forward to working with Dr. Eden as we continue to advance and expand through drilling our current high grade Gold resource, while encompassing the multiple new gold discoveries we have identified with in our land package. Our aspirations are to become a world class deposit similar to our neighbour Marathon Resources MOZ.v located a few kilometers away.” States Chris Anderson. CEO Great Atlantic Resources

About Dr Karsten Eden

Dr. Karsten Eden has over 25 years diverse international experience in the management of exploration and mine development projects in North America, West Africa, Western Australia, Scandinavia, and Europe. He has a successful track record in exploration targeting and extensive experience in complex exploration data analysis, mineral potential modeling, resource modeling and mineral economics. He holds a doctorate degree in exploration geology from the University of Technology Aachen, Germany and is a Certified Professional Geologist through the American Institute of Professional Geologists and the European Federation of Geologists.

Dr. Eden has held senior management, Chief Geologist, and VP Exploration positions with junior exploration companies as well as with government agencies. He was instrumental in numerous mineral discoveries, including gold, platinum group metals, antimony and industrial heavy minerals.
