CEC WITHDRAWS APPLICATION FOR ENVIRONMENTAL CERTIFICATE

Vancouver, Canada, March 4, 2015 – Compliance Energy Corporation (the “Company”) announces that its subsidiary Compliance Coal Corporation withdrew its application for an Environmental Certificate from the British Columbia Environmental Assessment Office (BCEAO) on March 2, 2015 as a result of incorrect information which had been circulating in certain communities regarding Raven Underground Coal Project.

The Company remains confident that the Raven Underground Coal Project will be developed in an environmentally favourable manner and will provide considerable economic and social benefits to the Comox area.

On behalf of the Board of

COMPLIANCE ENERGY CORPORATION

Mr. Stephen Ellis
President and COO
