

La Quinta Cliffhouse Grill & Bar installs Smartcool

VANCOUVER, Oct. 27, 2015 /CNW/ - Smartcool Systems Inc. (TSX-V:SSC)(OTCQB-SSCFF) is pleased to announce a successful installation of the Smartcool ECO3's at the Cliff House Restaurant in La Quinta, California. The install was part of a larger energy efficiency re-commissioning initiative performed by Synergy Power Solutions USA, an Energy Services Company (ESSCO) based in Atlanta, Georgia. Synergy also installed Power Correction/Harmonics Mitigation equipment, a complete facility LED lighting upgrade and other kWh reduction technology applications which is being monitored by SPSUSA to track the reduction of kWh & THD%.

Steve Achin, CEO of Synergy, stated, "Smartcool has been an invaluable addition to our product mix. We have been installing Smartcool whenever the opportunity has presented itself and our clients continue to be pleased with the results. The Cliff House is a marquee client, and will help us target restaurants in California. With utility rates haven climbed significantly, this first reference client installation will likely result in multi location additions for Synergy and Smartcool."

Ted Konyi, CEO of Smartcool commented, "Smartcool and Steve did a great job installing ECO3's at the restaurant. The units were installed immediately adjacent to the thermostats in prominent view of the restaurant's customers. There were 8 units installed to provide optimization of the rooftop AC units and various refrigeration equipment. We are excited to have installed in La Quinta, as Southern California is a focus market for Smartcool."

La Quinta Cliffhouse Grill & Bar captures the area's heritage with the ambiance of a historic ranch house. Jutting from a rock outcropping above the desert floor and surrounded by mountains, the La Quinta Cliffhouse is renowned for its spectacular views across the valley. The Cliffhouse is part of the Pacifica Group of Restaurants with 5 locations in Southern California.
