

Chartwell Announces TSX Acceptance of Normal Course Issuer Bid

MISSISSAUGA, ONTARIO – June 4, 2015 - Chartwell Retirement Residences (TSX:CSH.UN) ("Chartwell") announced today the receipt of final acceptance from the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") of Chartwell's notice of intention to make a normal course issuer bid ("NCIB"). Under the NCIB Chartwell will have the ability to purchase for cancellation up to a maximum of 17,379,338 units on the open market, representing approximately 10% of the public float (determined in accordance with the applicable rules of the TSX). As at June 1, 2015, Chartwell had 175,787,122 issued and outstanding units.

The NCIB will commence on June 8, 2015 and remain in effect until the earlier of June 7, 2016, the date on which Chartwell has purchased the maximum number of units permitted under the NCIB. Purchases of units under the NCIB will be made in accordance with TSX by-laws, rules and policies through open market transactions on the TSX or other exchanges and alternative trading systems in Canada. The units so purchased will be cancelled. The price paid for any repurchased units will be the market price of such units at the time of acquisition. Chartwell's average daily trading volume on the TSX during the last six calendar months was 253,090 units. Daily purchases will be limited to 63,272 units on the TSX other than block purchase exemptions.

Chartwell believes that its outstanding units represent an attractive investment, and the ongoing purchase of its outstanding units may benefit all persons who continue to hold units by increasing their equity interest in Chartwell.

From time to time, when Chartwell does not possess material nonpublic information about itself or its securities, it may enter into a pre-defined plan with its broker to allow for the repurchase of shares at times when Chartwell ordinarily would not be active in the market due to its own internal trading blackout periods, insider trading rules or otherwise.

Non-GAAP Measures

Chartwell's consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). Management uses certain financial measures to assess Chartwell's financial performance, which are measures not defined in generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") under IFRS.
