SelectCore Rebranding to Fintech Profile

TORONTO, May 24, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SelectCore Ltd. ("SelectCore" or the "Company") (TSXV:SCG), a newly established Fintech company wishes to advise investors that a proposal will be made at the next AGM to approve a corporate name change to Fintech Select Ltd.

We have reserved the necessary domain to match the proposed new corporate name. The new proposed identity would convey more appropriate themed business optics to the marketplace, as SelectCore, via the JV with First Global Data, now offers a full suite fintech model comprising of a prepaid card, and a mobile wallet that enables payment and remittance.

SelectCore customers/users will have a wider selection of fintech product mix. The Company will also reserve a new symbol for stock trading purposes. Given the new business dynamics and pipeline initiatives, we wish to accelerate our next AGM.

Mohammad Abuleil, President and CEO, comments, "Rebranding has become a critical path to allow for market awareness around our corporate transformation to a full suite Fintech enterprise. The timing couldn't be better as it coincides with the millennial shift to mobile spend, send and payment functions, as opposed to current forms of banking."
