

Bragg Gaming CEO Provides Mid-Year Update in Open Letter to Shareholders

CEO offers commentary on the priorities, progress and prospects of the company

TORONTO, July 02, 2019 -- Dominic Mansour, CEO of next generation gaming group Bragg Gaming Group Inc. (TSXV: BRAG, OTC:BRGGF) (Bragg) provided a mid-year update today, in the form of an open letter to shareholders.

"We've just passed the six-month mark as the new entity of Bragg, and I wanted to provide a mid-year update to all shareholders, particularly those who were not able to attend our AGM last week," said Mr. Mansour. "We're committed to providing open, direct communication to our shareholders on our priorities and the progress we're making at Bragg, and this is the first of what will become a regular communication forum."

The letter to shareholders can be found here.

Bragg held its first AGM on June 27, 2019, and as previously announced, all resolutions were passed. First quarter results for Bragg are currently available and Q2 results will be available by August 29, 2019.
