Onsino Capital Corporation Announces Revocation of the Cease Trade Orders

Toronto, Ontario – February 5, 2009, Onsino Capital Corporation (the "Company") (NEX BOARD: OS.H) is pleased to announce that on February 4, 2009 the Ontario Securities Commission issued an order revoking the temporary cease trade order dated September 11, 2007 under section 127 of the Securities Act (Ontario), as extended by an order dated September 21, 2007, and the British Columbia Securities Commission issued an order revoking the cease trade order dated September 11, 2007 pursuant to section 164 of the Securities Act (British Columbia).

The Company intends to expeditiously complete and file an application for a reinstatement of trading now that it is no longer subject to cease trade orders. Until such time as reinstatement occurs, trading in the Company's common shares will remain suspended. Shareholders will be unable to trade the common shares of the Company during the period of the suspension or until further notice.

The Company is a capital pool company governed by TSX Venture Exchange policies. The Company's principal business is the identification and evaluation of assets or businesses with a view to completing a Qualifying Transaction within the meaning of Exchange policies. Investors are cautioned that trading in the securities of a capital pool company should be considered highly speculative.

The Company's material documents may be accessed at www.sedar.com.
