Fireswirl Acquires Interest in Chinese Pushmail Integrator

Fireswirl Technologies Inc. (the "Company") announces its wholly owned subsidiary Fireswirl Technologies (Shenzhen) Co. Ltd. ("FTSCL") has acquired 21% of Beijing Tysen Xieli Technology Co. Ltd ("Tysen") a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China. FTSCL total investment in Tysen is 3.5 million RMB (approximately Cdn $625,000) consisting of 1.4 million RMB (approximately Cdn $250,000) paid to the existing shareholders (subject to milestones) and 2.1 million RMB (approximately Cdn $375,000) invested to Tysen for working capital. FTSCL has an option to acquire a further 30% of Tysen within the year 2011 at a an amount equal to 5 times the multiple of 30% of the after tax net earnings of Tysen in 2010. Fireswirl's investment in Tysen is governed by a definitive shareholder agreement that allows Fireswirl to appoint the "legal representative" of Tysen, 2 of the 3 person board members, and entitlement to 30% of Tysen's net earnings until December 31, 2009. FTSCL's investment in Tysen required foreign ownership approvals from the Peoples Republic of China which has been obtained.

Tysen is an integrator of a push e-mail ("pushmail") and mobile messaging software that has entered into a collaboration agreement with China Unicom Shanghai. (the provincial branch of China Unicom, http://www.chinaunicom.com.hk) China Unicom Shanghai officially launched the service on October 21, 2008 at Expo Comm China 2008 Beijing. Tysen's pushmail and mobile messaging service for China Unicom is powered by SEVEN® who provide mobile messaging solution for business and consumer users globally through major wireless carriers. SEVEN® supports more than 450 mobile devices across all the major operating systems including Windows Mobile, Brew, J2ME, Symbian and Palm OS.
