Former Director Serves Demand For Repayment of Loans

Sheffield, United Kingdom, January 12, 2009: Disenco Energy plc (Toronto TSX Venture Exchange "DIS.V"), has learned that John Gunn, a former director and creditor of the Company, served a formal demand under the Insolvency Act of 1986 requesting repayment of certain loans made to the Company in the aggregate amounts of CAD$400,000 and £150,000 (the "Demand").

The Company has commenced proceedings in the High Court in London to restrain Mr. Gunn from proceeding on the basis of the Demand as the Company is of the belief that the money is not yet due and payable.

The Company is vigorously disputing such claim and feels that such claim is without merit and is of the belief that it will be successful in its defence.

About Disenco Energy plc

Disenco is a home energy green power source alternative company focused on distributing a low-cost, highly efficient, green-alternative to heat and hot water production. Its unique HomePowerPlant (HPP) appliance will enable homeowners and small businesses to dramatically reduce their annual energy bills by approximately 35% per annum, while shrinking its household annual emissions (carbon footprint) by up to 66%. The Company's flagship product, the Disenco HPP – a micro combined heat and power appliance (m-CHP) – will give consumers the chance to produce all their heating and hot water needs from a single source point, with all surplus energy produced automatically re-sold to their respective city's power grid; thus, generating a home energy cost payback.
