FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

31 March 2026

Unilever PLC

Response to Media Speculation

Further to the announcement released on 20 March 2026, the Board of Unilever PLC (the "Company") notes recent media speculation regarding a potential strategic transaction involving elements of its Foods business.

The Company is now in advanced discussions with McCormick & Company ("McCormick") regarding a potential transaction. Work remains ongoing to agree and finalise a transaction and it is possible that an agreement could be concluded today, although there can be no certainty that a transaction will be agreed.

If a transaction were to proceed, it is currently contemplated that it would involve a combination of Unilever Foods (excluding parts of its Foods portfolio such as its business in India) with McCormick, with an upfront cash component of approximately US$15.7 billion and the majority of the consideration in McCormick equity. Upon completion of the transaction, it is expected that Unilever and its shareholders would hold 65% of the combined company. The transaction would be undertaken by a Reverse Morris Trust, which is intended to be tax-free for US federal income tax to Unilever and its shareholders. Full terms will be announced if a transaction is agreed.

The Company will make further announcements as appropriate.
