CLIFFMONT ANNOUNCES REVOCATION OF CEASE TRADE ORDERS

Vancouver, British Columbia – April 30, 2018 – Cliffmont Resources Ltd. (TSX-V - CMO) (“Cliffmont” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce the Company received notification of its full revocation of the compliance-related cease trade orders ("CTOs") previously issued by the British Columbia Securities Commission and Alberta Securities Commission (CTO effective February 5, 2016) and the Ontario Securities Commission (CTO effective February 9, 2016). The CTOs were issued for non-compliance of the Company’s continuous disclosure obligations and ceased all trading in the securities of the Company. The Company is proceeding with an application to the TSX Venture Exchange to resume trading and will hold an AGM within three months of the date hereof.

Appointment of New Director

The Company announces that Brandon Rook has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Company to replace Neil Gregory who has resigned as a Director of the Company.

Company Update

In November 2016, the Company closed an agreement (the “Settlement Agreement”) to settle the legal actions with the original vendors (the “Vendors”) of Tarana Resources S.A. (“Tarana”) and the San Luis mineral exploration license. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the Company transferred ownership of the Company’s Colombian subsidiary, CMO Colombia S.A.S (the “Transfer”) to the Vendors. The Company’s debt of $920,000 owing to the Vendors and outstanding property payables of $158,466 formed part of the consideration received for the Transfer. Additional consideration for the Transfer included the Vendors being held liable for all debts of CMO Colombia S.A.S. Concurrent with the sale of CMO Colombia S.A.S and Tarana Resources S.A., the Company abandoned its Colombian branch, CMO Panama Inc. Sucursal Colombia and its Panamanian subsidiary CMO Panama Inc. The Company currently has no significant assets or operations, however it is actively seeking new business opportunities and anticipates raising additional money through the issuance of equity and/or debt.
