For Immediate Release August 29, 2016

HEARING DATES SET FOR LEGAL ACTION AGAINST PROVINCE OF BC

China Minerals Mining Corporation (“China Minerals” or the “Company”) (TSX-V: CMV, US: HWTHF) announces that a three day hearing is scheduled to be heard on November 28, 29 and 30, 2016, at the courthouse at 800 Smithe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, with respect to China Minerals’ legal action against the government of British Columbia.

The Company’s Executive Chairman Ling Zhu stated: “We remain deeply troubled by the manner in which our company has been treated by government and are pleased that the hearing dates have been set.” Mr. Zhu added: “We have learned that the government of British Columbia has changed its approach to engaging mineral tenure holders in other incremental treaty agreements entered into after our litigation was filed, and we look forward to having the Supreme Court of British Columbia review what occurred in China Minerals’ case.”

For further information on the legal action see China Minerals’ news releases dated January 25, 2016, March 9, 2016 and May 25, 2016, copies of which are available under China Minerals’ SEDAR profile at www.sedar.com. A copy of the judicial review petition and supporting affidavit are filed on China Minerals’ website available at: www.chinamineralsmining.com.

The Company supports reconciliation between the province and aboriginal groups – provided existing third party rights are protected or properly compensated.
