Psychedelic Wellness-Focused Company Delic Announces Engagement with Wall Street Reporter

VANCOUVER, BC, Feb. 17, 2021 /CNW/ - Delic Holdings Inc (the "Company" or "DELIC") (CSE: DELC) (OTCQB: DELCF) is pleased to announce that it has retained the services of Wall Street Reporter, a multi-platform global marketing firm to increase investor awareness.

The marketing awareness services provided by Wall Street Reporter will be aimed at maintaining and building the profile of DELIC Inc through traditional press initiatives, online conferences and CEO Interviews.

Matt Stang, CEO and Founder of DELIC commented, "We are very excited to be working with the team at Wall Street Reporter to help us share the DELIC story with a wider audience, particularly in the US investment community. Given our recent acquisition of Ketamine Infusion Centers, along with other milestones we expect to achieve this year, this is the perfect time to expand our reach and help more potential new investors learn about our business. We chose Wall Street Reporter as our investor marketing partner because of their strong track record and multiple recent successes with other high growth-potential companies."

Wall Street Reporter has been online since 1997, and traces its heritage to 1843, as the first financial newspaper published in the United States. Today, Wall Street Reporter is best known as a "bridge" connecting serious investors directly with management of public companies. Their exclusive CEO Interviews, and Investment Conferences enable company management to share their company's "investment story" in their own words, without media bias, or filtering. This management access gives investors access to enable them to understand a company's upside potential, in the proper context, straight from the source.

As compensation, Wall Street Reporter will receive a payment of USD $125,000 and has been granted incentive stock options exercisable to purchase up to 400,000 common shares in the capital of the company at an exercise price of CAD $0.65 per share for a period expiring February 16, 2022.
