Inventus Announces Board of Director Changes

TORONTO, ONTARIO (Mar. 21, 2017) - Inventus Mining Corp. (TSX VENTURE: IVS) (“Inventus” or the “Company”) today appointed three new members to its Board of Directors. Gary Nassif, Nils Engelstad, and Dr. Richard Sutcliffe have joined Inventus’ Board. Greg Gibson, a director since March 2016, has resigned.

Gary Nassif is Senior Vice President of Jerriitt Canyon Gold a private gold mining company in Nevada owned by Sprott Mining Inc. Mr. Nassif has 24 years’ experience in mining and exploration in Canada, Nevada and sub-Saharan Africa, where he focused mainly on gold, base metals and diamonds. He was previously a part of the management team of Trelawney Mining and Exploration Inc., which was acquired in 2012 by IAMGOLD for $608 million. He holds a Bachelor of Science from Concordia University, a Master of Science from McGill University, and is a registered Professional Geoscientist.

Nils Engelstad is an international corporate and mining lawyer. Mr. Engelstad is currently the Vice President, General Counsel of Alamos Gold Inc., an intermediate gold producer. Prior to joining Alamos, he served as Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary to McEwen Mining Inc. and its predecessor companies. Mr. Engelstad holds an undergraduate degree in International Relations from the University of Toronto, a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Windsor, a Master of Laws from the University of Toronto, and is a member of the Law Society of Upper Canada.

Dr. Richard H. Sutcliffe is a Professional Geoscientist with 30 years’ experience in global mineral exploration and development. Dr. Sutcliffe has had key management roles in developing several gold, platinum group metals, and copper-nickel mining projects. He is currently President of Pavey Ark Minerals Inc., a private exploration project generator, and also manages several Canadian exploration assets for a Virginia-based private company. He is also a director of Harte Gold Corp.
