

ProntoForms Announces Winner of Inaugural Mobile Visionary Award

Dwayne Williams, Health, Security, Safety and Environment (HSSE) Supervisor, Shell Canada, recognized for improving operations and enhancing regulatory compliance.

TORONTO, ONTARIO - November 12, 2015 - ProntoForms Corporation ("ProntoForms" or the "Company") (TSXV: PFM), maker of ProntoForms[®], a mobile data collection and analytics platform, is pleased to announce that it has recognized Dwayne Williams, HSSE Supervisor, Shell Canada, with its inaugural Mobile Visionary Award.

ProntoForms launched the Mobile Visionary Award this year to recognize customers who possess a strong vision for their business and have harnessed the ProntoForms mobile solution to generate substantial improvements in areas such as productivity, customer service, and regulatory compliance. Mr. Williams' decision to adopt ProntoForms has resulted in streamlined HSSE processes, improved operations and enhanced compliance.

"Throughout the rollout of the ProntoForms mobile solution, Dwayne Williams showed that he possesses industry expertise, business acumen, and innovative drive," said Alvaro Pombo, ProntoForms Founder and CEO. "He's a proven mobile solutions champion and the ideal candidate to receive our first ever Mobile Visionary Award."

"I feel very honored to receive the ProntoForms Mobile Visionary Award," said Mr. Williams. "Shell and ProntoForms share a common goal – to make sure people get home safely to their families each and every day – and we are proud to be recognized for living that vision."

Shell is a global group of energy and petrochemicals companies with around 94,000 employees in more than 70 countries and territories. Shell uses advanced technologies and takes an innovative approach to help tackle the challenges of the new energy future.
