ProntoForms Announces Granting of U.S. Patent

Patent covers methods and system for orchestrating services and data sharing on mobile devices

OTTAWA, Ont. – September 16, 2016 – ProntoForms Corporation (TSXV: PFM), the leading provider of mobile workflow platforms for enterprises, and small to medium sized businesses, today announced that the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office has granted a new patent to ProntoForms.

The issued patent covers several embodiments on methods and systems for sharing data between mobile devices using an orchestration platform which optionally translates the data between different formats.

ProntoForms owns seven patent families covering inventions in the areas of data synchronization between devices, customizing mobile forms and policy-driven mobile forms management.

"The granting of this patent validates our skills in using innovation to deliver a robust, yet simple solution, with tangible business value in a large market," said Alvaro Pombo, CEO of ProntoForms. "Our culture of innovation is the foundation for our leadership position in the mobile forms market."

In addition, the Company has granted an aggregate amount of 2,937,500 stock options to directors, officers and employees of the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Stock Option Plan, subject to approval of the TSX-V. Each option entitles the holder to purchase one common share of the Company at an exercise price of $0.31 for a period of five years.
