

31 July 2020

NatWest Group plc

NatWest Group plc announces that Baroness Noakes, DBE will step down as a non-executive director at close of business today, 31 July 2020.

Morten Friis will succeed Baroness Noakes as Chairman of the Group Board Risk Committee with effect from 1 August.

Howard Davies, Chairman, said:

"I would like to thank Sheila for her outstanding contribution to the Board since joining as a non-executive director in 2011. She has expertly chaired the Group Board Risk Committee since 2014, successfully navigating some challenging times along the way. She has also served as a diligent and valued member of the Group Audit Committee and Group Nominations and Governance Committee. She leaves with our very best wishes for the future.

I am delighted that Morten is assuming the role of Chairman of the Group Board Risk Committee. Morten has been a member of the Committee since 2014 and, with his extensive background in banking and risk, he is ideally placed to take the Committee's work forward. "

There are no matters requiring disclosure under Listing Rule 9.6.13.

For further information contact:

NWG Investor Relations
Alexander Holcroft
Head of Investor Relations
+44 20 7672 1758

NatWest Group Media Centre +44 131 523 4205

LEI: 2138005O9XJIJN4JPN90