NEWS RELEASE

Mission Ready Signs Distribution Agreement with Federal Resources

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA – (June 7, 2017) – Mission Ready Services Inc. (“Mission Ready”) (TSX VENTURE: MRS) is pleased to announce that Protect The Force (“PTF” or “The Company”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Mission Ready, has signed a distribution agreement (the “Distribution Agreement”) with Federal Resources Supply Company (“FRSC”) for the sale of its Flex9Armor (the “Product”) into agencies of the United States Government, agencies of state governments, and other potential customers (the “Market Segment”).

Pursuant to the agreement, FRSC will place an initial stocking order – and will maintain a minimum inventory level – of approximately USD $30,000 - $40,000 in Product for logistical efficiency and expedited fulfillment purposes. Protect The Force will utilize FRSC’s facilities, personnel, and capabilities, on a non-exclusive basis, for the sale, delivery and limited servicing of the Company’s Flex9Armor product. Pursuant to the agreement, PTF will provide training and instruction in the sale and use of the Product, and FRSC will maintain a properly trained sales force and actively promote sales of the Flex9Armor within the Market Segment.

“Federal Resources shares our passion for the uncompromising quality and protection that our heroes on the battlefield deserve, from first-responders to the many selfless men and women serving in the military. Federal Resources continues to champion their commitment to excellence and we are honored to have their team representing Protect The Force in promoting our Flex9Armor,” states Jeffrey Schwartz, President & CEO of Mission Ready.

Expanding from modest beginnings as a small business serving local divers in Virginia in 1986 to its current global position as a leading provider of quality solutions for warfighters and first responders worldwide, Federal Resources has paved the way in the service contract and manufacturing industry. FR attributes its remarkable rise to extensive, long-held relationships with trusted vendors honed over more than three decades, its loyal customers and the company’s meticulous attention to relevancy and detail.

About Federal Resources

Federal Resources is committed to providing quality products and technical resources at the highest level of service and integrity to protect and empower those who serve in the Armed Forces and on Federal, State and Local and International Emergency Response Teams. Federal Resources is committed to exceeding our customers’ expectations for quality, responsiveness, price and delivery. For our employees, quality is a mindset and a mission.
