Apteryx Imaging Inc. Announces Appointment of Executive Chairman

Vancouver, BC – March 3, 2020 – Apteryx Imaging Inc. (“Apteryx”) is pleased to announce that Avi Naider has been appointed as the Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors of Apteryx. Darryl Yea, the former Chairman of Apteryx, has been appointed Lead Director.

In his role as Executive Chairman, Mr. Naider will work with Apteryx CEO, Dr. David Gane, and other company executives on strategic plan execution, driving operational excellence and supporting the creation of long-term value for shareholders. As Lead Director, Mr. Yea will be responsible for protecting the independence of the Board and managing the reporting and fiduciary obligations of the Board.

Avi Naider is an investor and entrepreneur with twenty-five years of experience operating and advising growth companies in various sectors, including fintech, SAAS software and life sciences. A graduate of Princeton University, Mr. Naider began his career at Boston Consulting Group and most recently served as CEO of ARMCO, a leading provider of risk management software to major financial companies. Mr. Naider has served on various boards of public and private companies, including LOXO Oncology (LOXO), which was acquired by Eli Lilly in 2019.

“I look forward to working with Mr. Naider in his new role as Executive Chair, leveraging his business talents, experience and relationships,” commented Dr. Gane.

“I am excited by the Apteryx opportunity before me. I look forward to supporting Dr. Gane and working with the Apteryx team to generate value for our shareholders,” added Mr. Naider.
