BLIND CREEK - RESIGNATION OF PRESIDENT

Vancouver, B.C., March 6, 2020. Blind Creek Resources Ltd. (BCK: TSX-V) ("Blind Creek", or the "Company") announces Brian Fowler has resigned as President of the Company. Brian is expected to remain a Director until the next Annual General Meeting. The Company thanks Mr. Fowler for his contributions during his time as President and wishes him well in all future endeavors.

About Blind Creek Resources Ltd

Blind Creek is a Vancouver-based junior resource company focused on lead-zinc-silver project acquisition, exploration and development. The Company's flagship property is the Blende Deposit in north-central Yukon. The property is 100% owned, winter-road accessible 5,345 ha and situated 63 km northeast of Keno Hill, Yukon. The property is the largest carbonate-hosted Zn-Pb-Ag deposit in Yukon and one of the largest undeveloped Zn-Pb-Ag deposits in Western Canada. The property has had more than $9.2 M in past exploration ($5.2M by Blind Creek); including 25,195 meters of drilling in 132 drill holes.
