MAMMOTH RESOURCES ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF NEW DIRECTOR

Toronto, Canada – July 2, 2015 - Mammoth Resources Corp. (the "Company") (TSX-V: MTH) is pleased to announce the appointment of Wanda Cutler as a director of the Company. The Company would also like to announce the resignation of Paul Carroll as a director.

Ms. Cutler brings more than 15 years of corporate development, communications, investor relations and marketing experience to the Board, where, throughout her career she has held numerous senior communications, marketing and investor relations positions in several public companies including multiple junior mining and alternative energy companies. Ms. Cutler brings a solid understanding of the capital markets and has counselled management on joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions, capital raises, and other corporate transactions. She has extensive experience in creating and managing strategic corporate communications programs, corporate branding and marketing programs. Ms. Cutler holds a Bachelor of Social Science (Political Science) from the University of Ottawa.

Thomas Atkins, President and CEO of Mammoth, would like to thank Mr. Carroll for his service to the Company during such challenging times as the resource sector has experienced these past years and welcomes Ms. Cutler to the Board of Mammoth Resources.

About Mammoth Resources:

Mammoth Resources (TSX-V: MTH) is a mineral exploration Company focused on acquiring and defining precious metal resources in Mexico and other attractive mining friendly jurisdictions in the Americas. The Company has an option to acquire 100% in the Tenoriba Property located in the Sierra Madre Precious Metal Belt in southwestern Chihuahua State, Mexico. The Company continues to seek other option agreements in the Americas on other properties it deems to host above average potential for economic concentrations of precious metals mineralization.
