Voxtur Announces Resignation of Auditors

TORONTO and TAMPA, Fla., April 03, 2023 -- Voxtur Analytics Corp. (TSXV: VXTR; OTCQB: VXTRF) ("Voxtur" or the "Company"), a North American technology company creating a more transparent and accessible real estate lending ecosystem, announced today that Marcum LLP (the "Former Auditor") have resigned as auditor of the Company of its own initiative, by way of a written notice provided on March 31, 2023. No reason was provided by the auditor in its notice to the Company for its resignation.

The Company has begun the formal change of auditor process under National Instrument 51-102 – Continuous Disclosure Obligations ("NI 51-102"). As part of this process, the Notice of Change of Auditor, together with the letter from the Former Auditor, will within the required statutory period be posted at www.sedar.com.

The Former Auditor's resignation has been accepted by the Board of Directors of the Company and the Company is in the process of selecting a successor auditor.

Due to the timing of the Former Auditor's resignation, the Company is of the view that it will likely not be in a position to file its audited financial statements by May 1, 2023. As a result the Company intends to apply for a temporary management cease trade order ("MCTO") under National Policy 12-203 Cease Trade Orders for Continuous Disclosure Defaults ("NP 12-203"), which, if applied for and granted, will prohibit trading in securities of the Corporation by the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of the Company until such time as the required filings and all continuous disclosure requirements have been filed by the Company and the MCTO has been lifted. During the period in which the MCTO is effective, the general public, who are not insiders of the Corporation, will continue to be able to trade in the Corporations listed securities. There is no guarantee or assurance that the MCTO will be applied for, or if applied for, will be granted.
