

THE COMPANIES ACT 1985

A PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

NEW ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

PARAGON BANKING GROUP PLC

[adopted pursuant to a Special Resolution of the Company passed on 20th March, 1989 and amended pursuant to two Special Resolutions of the Company passed on 13th February, 1995, a Special Resolution of the Company passed on 28th January, 1999, a Special Resolution of the Company passed on 9th February, 2006, a Special Resolution of the Company passed on 27th February, 2008, a Special Resolution of the Company passed on 27th February, 2008, a Special Resolution of the Company passed on 5 February 2009, a Special Resolution of the Company passed on 11 February 2010, a Special Resolution of the Company passed on 12 February 2015 and a Special Resolution of the Company passed on 15 February 2018]

PRELIMINARY

1. The articles prescribed in or pursuant to the legislation do not apply as the articles of the Company but the following shall be the articles of association of the Company.

2. In these Articles, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Articles" means these articles of association as altered from time to time by special resolution;

"the auditors" means the auditors for the time being of the Company;

"the Bank of England base rate" means the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998;

"the board" means the directors or any of them acting as the board of directors of the Company;

"certificated share" means a share which is not a CREST share and is normally held in certificated form;

"clear days" means in relation to the period of a notice, that period excluding the day when the notice is served or deemed to be served and the day for which it is given or on which it is to take effect;

"CREST" means the electronic settlement system for securities traded on a recognised investment exchange and owned by Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited, or any similar system;

"CREST share" means a share which is noted on the shareholders' register as being held through CREST in uncertificated form;

"director" means a director of the Company;

"the Companies Acts" means every statute (including any orders, regulations or other subordinate legislation made under it) from time to time in force concerning companies in so far as it applies to the Company;

"dividend" means dividend or bonus;

"the holder" in relation to any shares means the member whose name is entered in the register as the holder of such shares;

"legislation" means every statute (and any orders, regulations or other subordinate legislation made under it) applying to the Company;

"the office" means the registered office of the Company;

"paid" means paid or credited as paid;

"the register" means the register of members of the Company;

"recognised clearing house" means a body declared by an order of the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry for the time being in force to be a recognised clearing house for the purposes of the Financial Services Act 1986;

"recognised investment exchange" means a body declared by an order of the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry for the time being in force to be a recognised investment exchange for the purposes of the Financial Services Act 1986;

"the seal" means the common seal of the Company and includes any official seal kept by the Company by virtue of sections 49 and 50 of the Companies Act 2006;

"the secretary" means the secretary of the Company and includes a joint, assistant, deputy or temporary secretary and any other person appointed to perform the duties of the secretary;

"The Stock Exchange" means the London Stock Exchange Limited;

"uncertificated securities rules" means any provision in the legislation which relates to CREST shares or to the transfer of CREST shares or how the ownership of CREST shares is evidenced;

"the United Kingdom" means Great Britain and Northern Ireland;

references in these Articles to a document being "signed" or to "signature" include references to its being executed under hand or under seal or by any other method and, in the case of a communication in electronic form, such references are to its being authenticated as specified by the legislation;

references in these Articles to "writing" and to any form of "written" communication include references to any method of representing or reproducing words in a legible and non-transitory form whether sent or supplied in electronic form or otherwise;

words denoting the singular number only include the plural number also and vice versa, words denoting one gender only include the other genders and words denoting persons only include firms and corporations and vice versa;

(save where otherwise defined in these Articles or where the context otherwise requires) words or expressions contained in these Articles bear the same meaning as in the legislation but excluding any statutory modification thereof not in force at the date of adoption of the Articles;

references to any provision of any enactment or of any subordinate legislation (as defined by section 21(1) of the Interpretation Act 1978) include any modification or re-enactment of that provision for the time being in force; and references to amounts paid or credited as paid on shares in the Company shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include amounts paid or credited as paid by way of nominal value or of premium.

3. The liability of the members of the Company is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares in the Company held by them.

NAME

4. The Company may change its name by resolution of the board.

SHARE CAPITAL

5. Subject to the provisions of the legislation and without prejudice to any rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, any share may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions as the Company may by ordinary resolution determine or, subject to and in default of such determination, as the board shall determine. Such rights and restrictions shall apply to the relevant shares as if the same were set out in these Articles.

6. Subject to the provisions of the legislation or the Articles, and of any resolution of the Company in general meeting passed pursuant thereto, and without prejudice to any rights attached to existing shares, the board may allot (with or without conferring a right of renunciation), issue, grant options over, or otherwise dispose of shares in the Company to such persons, on such terms and conditions, and at such times as it thinks fit. This power shall not apply to redeemable shares, which shall be governed by the provisions of Article 7.

7. Subject to the provisions of the legislation and to any rights attached to existing shares, the Company may create and issue shares which are to be redeemed or are to be liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder. The board may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any redeemable shares so issued. Such terms and conditions shall apply to the relevant shares as if the same were set out in these Articles.

8. The Company may exercise all powers of paying commissions or brokerage conferred or permitted by the legislation. Subject to the provisions of the legislation, any such commission or brokerage may be satisfied by the payment of cash or by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other.

9. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise any interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these Articles or by law otherwise provided) any other right in respect of any share, except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

VARIATION OF RIGHTS

10. (1) Subject to the provisions of the legislation, if at any time the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class may (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) be varied or abrogated, whether or not the Company is being wound up, either with the consent in writing of the holders of three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of such holders (but not otherwise). All the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings of the Company shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every such separate meeting, except that:-

- (a) the necessary quorum shall be two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) or, at any adjourned meeting of such holders, one holder present in person or by proxy, whatever the amount of his holding, who shall be deemed to constitute a meeting; and
- (b) any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote may demand a poll.

(2) The provisions of this Article will apply to any change of rights of shares forming part of a class. Each part of the class which is being treated differently is treated as a separate class in applying this Article.

11. Unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to any shares, those rights shall be deemed to be varied by the reduction of the capital paid up on the shares and by the allotment of further shares ranking in priority for payment of a dividend or in respect of capital or which confer on the holders voting rights more favourable than those conferred by such first mentioned shares, but shall not otherwise be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

12. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register (except a recognised clearing house or a nominee of a recognised clearing house or of a recognised investment exchange in respect of whom the Company is not required by law to complete and have ready for delivery a certificate) shall be entitled, without payment, to receive one certificate for all the shares of each class held by him (and, upon transferring a part of his holding of shares of any class, to a certificate for the balance of such holding) or, with the consent of the board, several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment for every certificate after the first of such reasonable sum as the board may determine. Every certificate shall be sealed with the seal and shall specify the number, class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid up thereon. The Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for shares held jointly by several persons and delivery of a certificate to one joint holder shall be a sufficient delivery to all of them. Shares of different classes may not be included in the same certificate. Where a member has transferred a part of the shares comprised in his holding he shall be entitled to a certificate for the balance without charge.

13. If a share certificate is defaced, worn out, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity (with or without security) and payment of any exceptional expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in investigating the evidence and preparing the requisite form of indemnity as the board may determine but otherwise free of charge, and (in the case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate. Any one joint shareholder can request replacement certificates.

14. Every share certificate will be sent at the risk of the member or other person entitled to the certificate. The Company will not be responsible for any share certificate which is lost or delayed in the course of delivery.

LIEN

15. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not and whether by way of nominal value or premium) payable at a fixed time or called in respect of that share. The board may at any time (generally or in particular cases) waive any lien or declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to any amount (including dividends) payable in respect of it.

16. The Company may sell, in such manner as the board determines, any share on which the Company has a lien if a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within fourteen clear days after a notice in writing has been given to the holder of the share or to the person entitled to it in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the holder or otherwise by operation of law, demanding payment of the sum presently payable and stating that if the notice is not complied with the shares may be sold.

17. To give effect to any such sale the board may authorise some person to sign an instrument of transfer of the shares sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser. The transferee shall be entered in the register as the holder of the shares comprised in any such instrument of transfer and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in relation to the sale.

18. The net proceeds of the sale, after payment of the costs of the sale, shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of so much of the sum in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and any residue shall (upon surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold and subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person whose shares were so sold.

UNCERTIFICATED SHARES

19. (1) Under the uncertificated securities rules, the directors can allow the ownership of shares to be evidenced without share certificates and for these shares to be transferred through CREST. The directors can select and make arrangements for any class of shares to participate in CREST in this way, provided that the shares of the class are identical in all respects.

(2) As long as the directors comply with the uncertificated securities rules, they can also withdraw a class of shares from being transferred through CREST and from allowing ownership of them to be evidenced without share certificates.

(3) CREST shares do not form a class of shares separate from certificated shares with the same rights.

20. If the Company has any shares in issue which are CREST shares, these Articles apply to those shares, but only as far as they are consistent with:-

- (a) holding shares in an uncertificated form;
- (b) transferring shares through CREST;

- (c) any provision of the uncertificated securities rules; or
- (d) the Company exercising any of its powers or functions or doing anything through CREST, and, without affecting the general nature of this Article, no provision of these Articles applies so far as it is inconsistent with the maintenance, keeping or entering up by the Operator, so long as that is permitted or required by the uncertificated securities rules, of an Operator register of securities in respect of CREST shares.

21. CREST shares can be changed to become certificated shares and certificated shares can be changed to become CREST shares, provided the requirements of the uncertificated securities rules are met.

22. If under these Articles or the legislation the Company can sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, forfeit, re-allot, accept the surrender of or otherwise enforce a lien over a CREST share, then, subject to these Articles and the legislation, the directors may:

- (a) require the holder of that CREST share by written notice to change that CREST share to a certificated share within a period specified in the notice and to keep it as a certificated share for as long as the directors require;
- (b) appoint any person to take any other steps, by instruction given through CREST or otherwise, in the name of the holder of that share as may be necessary to effect the transfer of that share and these steps will be as effective as if they had been taken by the registered holder of that share; and
- (c) take any other action that the directors consider appropriate to achieve the sale, transfer, disposal, forfeiture, re-allotment or surrender of that share or otherwise to enforce a lien in respect of that share.

23. Unless the directors decide otherwise, CREST shares held by a shareholder will be treated as separate holdings from any certificated shares which that shareholder holds.

24. Unless the uncertificated securities rules otherwise require or the directors otherwise determine, shares which are issued or created from or in respect of CREST shares will be CREST shares and shares which are issued or created from or in respect of certificated shares will be certificated shares.

25. The Company can assume that entries on any record of securities kept by it as required by the uncertificated securities rules and regularly reconciled with the relevant Operator register of securities are a complete and accurate reproduction of the particulars entered in the Operator register of securities and therefore will not be liable in respect of anything done or not done by or on its behalf in reliance on such assumption; in particular, any provision of these Articles which requires or envisages action to be taken in reliance on information contained in the register allows that action to be taken in reliance on information contained in any relevant record of securities (as so maintained and reconciled).

CALLS ON SHARES

26. Subject to the terms of allotment, the board may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and each member shall (subject to receiving at least twenty-eight clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the Company as required by the notice the amount called on his shares. A call may be required to be paid by instalments. A call may be revoked in whole or part as the board may determine and the time fixed for payment of a call may be postponed by the board. A person upon whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made upon him notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect whereof the call was made.

27. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the board authorising the call was passed.

28. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

29. If a call or any instalment of a call remains unpaid in whole or in part after it has become due and payable the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay interest on the amount unpaid from the day it became due and payable until it is paid at the rate fixed by the terms of allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is fixed at the appropriate rate (as defined by the legislation) but the board may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

30. An amount payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of nominal value or premium or as an instalment of a call, shall, for the purposes of the Articles, be deemed to be a call duly made and notified and payable on the date so fixed or in accordance with the terms of the allotment, and if it is not paid the provisions of the Articles shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

31. The board may differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

32. The board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and may pay upon all or any of the moneys so advanced (until the same would but for such advance become presently payable) interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the Company in general meeting shall otherwise direct) the appropriate rate (as defined in the legislation) as may be agreed upon between the board and such member. The shares in respect of which any amounts uncalled have been paid in advance shall be treated for all purposes as being partly paid only to the extent of any amounts called and paid on them until such time as the moneys so advanced become presently payable.

FORFEITURE AND SURRENDER

33. If a call or any instalment of a call remains unpaid in whole or in part after it has become due and payable, the board may give to the person from whom it is due not less than seven clear days' notice requiring payment of the amount unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. The notice shall name the place where payment is to be made and shall state that if the notice is not complied with the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

34. If any such notice is not complied with any share in respect of which it was given may, at any time before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the board to that effect and the forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

35. Subject to the provisions of the legislation, a forfeited share shall be deemed to belong to the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the board determines, either to the person who was before the forfeiture the holder or to any other person and at any time before sale, re-allotment or other disposal, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the board thinks fit. Where for the purposes of its disposal a forfeited share is to be transferred to any person the board may authorise some person to sign an instrument of transfer of the share to that person.

36. A person any of whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of them and shall surrender to the Company for cancellation the certificate for the shares forfeited but shall remain liable to pay the Company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture were then payable by him to the Company in respect of those shares with interest thereon at the rate at which interest was payable on those moneys before the forfeiture or, if no interest was so payable, at such rate not exceeding the Bank of England base rate by more than five per cent. per annum as the board shall think fit from the date of forfeiture until payment; but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all moneys in respect of the shares. He is not entitled to any credit for the value of the share when it was forfeited or for any consideration received on its disposal unless the directors decide to allow credit for all or any of that value.

37. The board may accept the surrender of any share which it is in a position to forfeit upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed and, subject to any such terms and conditions, a surrendered share shall be treated as if it had been forfeited.

38. A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that he is such and a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and the person to whom the share is disposed of shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected after he has been registered as the holder thereof by any irregularity in or invalidity of, the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

39. Certificated shares

The instrument of transfer of a share may be in any usual form or in any other form which the board may approve and shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and, unless the share is fully paid, by or on behalf of the transferee.

40. CREST shares

Unless these Articles say otherwise, any shareholder can transfer some or all of his CREST shares to another person. A transfer of CREST shares must be made through CREST and must comply with the uncertificated securities rules.

41. Entry on register

The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof. No fee shall be payable to the Company for the registration of any instrument of transfer of a share.

RIGHTS TO DECLINE REGISTRATION OF SHARES

42. The board may refuse to register the transfer of any shares which are not fully paid.

43. Certificated shares

The board may also refuse to register any transfer of a certificated share unless the instrument of transfer:

- (a) is lodged, duly stamped, at the office or at such other place as the board may appoint accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
- (b) is in respect of only one class of shares; and
- (c) is in favour of not more than four transferees.

In the case of a transfer by a recognised clearing house or a nominee of a recognised clearing house or of a recognised investment exchange, the lodgement of share certificates will only be necessary if and to the extent that certificates have been issued in respect of the shares in question.

44. CREST shares

Registration of a transfer of CREST shares can be refused in the circumstances set out in the uncertificated securities rules and where, in the case of a transfer to joint holders, the number of joint holders to whom the CREST share is to be transferred exceeds four.

45. If the board refuses to register the transfer, it shall within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee notice of the refusal, together with reasons for the refusal.

46. Where a share has not yet been entered on the register, the directors can recognise a renunciation by that person of his right to the share in favour of some other person. Such renunciation will be treated as a transfer and the directors have the same powers of refusing to give effect to such a renunciation as if it were a transfer.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

47. If a member dies the survivor or survivors where he was a joint holder, and his legal personal representatives where he was a sole holder or the only survivor of joint holders, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his share; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased member (whether a sole or joint holder) from any liability in respect of any share held by him.

48. A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or otherwise by operation of law may, upon such evidence being produced as the board may properly require as to his title and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to become the holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee. If he elects to become the holder he shall give the Company notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects, such notice to be treated as a transfer form (if he holds certificated shares) or comply with the uncertificated securities rules (if he holds CREST shares). If he elects to have another person registered, he shall sign an instrument of transfer of the share to that person (if he holds certificated shares) or effect a transfer through CREST (if he holds CREST shares). All the provisions of the Articles relating to the transfer of and registration of transfers of, shares shall apply to the notice or transfer as if the death or bankruptcy of the member or other event giving rise to the transmission had not occurred and the notice or transfer was given or signed by that member.

49. A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or otherwise by operation of law shall, upon such evidence being produced as the board may properly require as to his entitlement and subject to the requirements of Article 138, be entitled to receive and may give a discharge for all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of the share, but he shall not, before being registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to receive notice of or to attend or vote at any meeting of the Company or to receive notice of or to attend or vote at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company or to any of the rights or privileges of a member. The board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied with within sixty days the board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

STOCK

50. (1) The Company may by ordinary resolution convert any fully paid shares into stock, and re-convert any stock into fully paid shares of any denomination.

(2) The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit. The Board may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that the minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

(3) The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, participation in assets on a winding up, voting at meetings, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such rights, privileges or advantages (except participation in dividends and profits and in the assets on a winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred such rights, privileges or advantages.

(4) All the provisions of these Articles applicable to fully paid shares shall apply to stock, and the word "share" shall be construed accordingly.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

51. The Company may by ordinary resolution and subject to the provisions of the legislation, sub-divide its shares, or any of them, and the resolution may determine that, as between the shares resulting from the sub-division, any of them may have any preference or advantage as compared with the others.

52. Whenever as a result of a consolidation or division of shares any difficulty arises, the board may settle the matter in any manner it deems fit and in particular, may sell shares representing fractions to which any members would become entitled to any person (including, subject to the provisions of the legislation, the Company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those members, and the board may authorise some person to sign an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser. The board may also arrange for any shares representing fractions to be entered in the register as certificated shares if they consider that this would make it easier to sell them. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

53. Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the legislation and without prejudice to Article 5 and to any relevant special rights attached to any class of shares, the Company may purchase any of its own shares of any class (including redeemable shares) at any price (whether at par or above or below par), and so that any shares to be so purchased may be selected in any manner whatsoever. Every contract for the purchase of, or under which the Company may become entitled or obliged to purchase, shares in the Company shall be authorised by such resolution of the Company as may be required by the legislation and by a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of any shares which at the date on which the contract is authorised by the Company in general meeting entitle them, either immediately or at any time later on, to convert all or any of the shares of that class held by them into equity share capital of the Company.

GENERAL MEETINGS

54. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

55. The board shall convene and the Company shall hold general meetings as annual general meetings in accordance with the requirements of the legislation.

56. The board may call an extraordinary general meeting whenever and at such times and places as it shall determine and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the legislation, shall forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting in accordance with the requirements of the legislation and for a date not later than six weeks after receipt of the requisition (unless the requisitionists shall consent in writing to a later date being fixed). If at any time there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum any director of the Company or any two members may convene a general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the board.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

57. Subject to the provisions of the Articles and to any restrictions imposed on any shares, notice of general meetings shall be given in the manner provided by these Articles to all the members, to each of the directors and to the auditors for the time being or, if more than one for the time being, each of them.

58. The directors may, for the purpose of controlling the level of attendance at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting, from time to time make such arrangements whether involving the issue of tickets (on a basis intended to afford to all members otherwise entitled to attend such meeting an equal opportunity of being admitted to the meeting) or the imposition of some random means of selection or otherwise as they shall in their absolute discretion consider to be appropriate, and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements in place therefor and the entitlement of any member or proxy to attend a general meeting at such place shall be subject to any such arrangements as may be for the time being in force and by the notice of meeting stated to apply to that meeting. In the case of any general meeting to which such arrangements apply the directors shall, and in the case of any other general meeting the directors may, when specifying the place of the general meeting, direct that the meeting shall be held at a place specified in the notice at which the chairman of the meeting shall preside ("the Principal Place") and make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at other places by members otherwise entitled to attend the general meeting but excluded therefrom under the provisions of this Article or who wish to attend at any of such other places, provided that persons attending at the Principal Place and at any of such other places shall be able to see and hear and be seen and heard by persons attending at the Principal Place and at such other places. Such arrangement for simultaneous attendance may include arrangements for controlling the level of attendance in any manner aforesaid at such other places provided that they shall operate so that any such excluded members as aforesaid are able to attend at one of such other places. For the purposes of all other provisions of the Articles any such meeting shall be treated as being held and taking place at the Principal Place.

59. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting or to supply any document or other information relating to the meeting to any person entitled to receive the same, or the non-receipt (even if the Company becomes aware of such non-receipt) of a notice of meeting, document or other information relating to the meeting, by any such person, shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

60. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business, but the absence of a quorum shall not preclude the choice or appointment of a chairman, which shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting. Save as otherwise provided by the Articles, two persons present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted shall be a quorum.

61. If such a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes (or such longer time not exceeding thirty minutes as the chairman of the meeting may decide to wait) from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved, and in any other case shall stand adjourned to such day (being not less than ten days later, excluding the day on which the meeting is adjourned and the day for which it is reconvened), time and place as the chairman of the meeting may determine. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

62. The chairman, if any, of the board or in his absence some other director nominated by the board, shall preside as chairman of the meeting, but if neither the chairman nor such other director (if any) is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is not willing to act as chairman, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman. If there is only one director present and willing to act, he shall be chairman. If no director is willing to act as chairman, or if no director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman.

63. A director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company. The Chairman of a meeting can also allow anyone to attend and speak where he considers that this will help the business of the meeting.

64. (1) The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more or for an indefinite period, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in like manner as in the case of the original but except where these Articles require it, it shall not otherwise be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

(2) If the directors consider that it is impracticable or undesirable to hold a general meeting on the date or at the time or place stated in the notice calling the meeting, they can move or postpone the meeting (or do both). If the directors do this, an announcement of the date, time and place of the rearranged meeting will, if practicable, be published in at least two national newspapers in the United Kingdom. Notice of the business of the meeting does not need to be given again. The directors must take reasonable steps to ensure that any shareholder trying to attend the meeting at the original time and place is informed of the new arrangements. If a meeting is rearranged in this way, proxy forms are valid if they are received as required by these Articles not less than 48 hours before the time of the rearranged meeting. The directors can also move or postpone the rearranged meeting (or do both) under this Article.

65. If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling. In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a special resolution, no amendment thereto (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error) shall in any event be considered or voted upon.

66. A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless, before or on the declaration of the result of a vote on the show of hands or on the withdrawal of any other demand for a poll, a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the legislation, a poll may be demanded by -

- (a) the chairman of the meeting; or
- (b) at least two members present in person or by proxy having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (c) any member or members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (d) any member or members present in person or by proxy holding shares conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right, and a demand by a person as proxy for a member shall be the same as a demand by the member.

67. Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

68. The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn at any time before the conclusion of the meeting at which it is demanded only with the consent of the chairman and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made. If the demand for a poll is withdrawn, the chairman or any other member entitled may demand a poll.

69. A poll shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

70. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than twenty-eight days after the poll is demanded. Any business other than that on which the poll was demanded may be proceeded with pending the completion of the poll. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

71. No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

72. Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares as to voting and to any other provision of these Articles, members shall be entitled to vote at a general meeting whether on a show of hands or on a poll as provided in the Companies Acts. For this purpose, where a proxy is given discretion as to how to vote on a show of hands, this shall be treated as an instruction by the relevant member to vote in the way that the proxy elects to exercise that discretion.

73. In the case of joint holders of a share the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register.

74. A member in respect of whom an order has been made by any court or official having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his receiver, curator bonis or other person authorised in that behalf appointed by that court or official, and any such receiver, curator bonis or other person may vote by proxy.

75. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company, either in person or by proxy, in respect of any share held by him unless all moneys presently payable by him in respect of that share have been paid.

76. (1) If at any time the board is satisfied that any member or other person appearing to be interested in shares in the capital of the Company has failed within twenty-eight days to comply with a notice duly given to that person by the Company pursuant to section 793 of the Companies Act 2006 (other than a person for the time being exempted by the Secretary of State from the operation of such section) or, in purported compliance with such a notice, has made a statement which is false or inadequate in a material particular, then the board may serve notice in writing on any member holding shares relating to which the board has determined or become aware that such default has occurred. Any such notice (hereinafter referred to as a "Default Notice") shall specify the nature of the default, the number of shares concerned and the steps to be taken to remedy such default. For the purpose of this Article a person shall be treated as appearing to be interested in any shares if the member holding such shares has given to the Company a notification under section 793 of the Companies Act 2006 which fails to establish the identities of those interested in the shares and if (after taking into account in particular, but without limitation, such notification and any other relevant section 793 notification under section 793) the Company knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person in question is or may be interested in the shares.

(2) Where the identified shares make up 0.25 per cent. or more (in amount or in number) of the existing shares of a class (calculated exclusive of any shares of that class held as treasury shares) at the date of delivery of the restriction notice, the restriction notice can also contain the following further restrictions:-

- (a) the directors can withhold any dividend or part of a dividend (including scrip dividend) or other money which would otherwise be payable in respect of the identified shares without any liability to pay interest when such money is finally paid to the shareholder; and
 - (b) the directors can refuse to register a transfer of any of the identified shares which are certificated shares unless the directors are satisfied that they have been sold outright to an independent third party. The independent third party must not be connected with the shareholder or with any person appearing to be interested in the shares. Any sale through a recognised investment exchange or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom or by way of acceptance of a takeover offer will be treated as an outright sale to an independent third party. For this purpose, any associate (as that term is defined in section 435 of the Insolvency Act 1986) is included in the class of persons who are connected with the shareholder or any person appearing to be interested in the shares. In order to enforce the restriction in this sub-paragraph, the directors can give notice to the relevant shareholder requiring him to change identified shares which are CREST shares to certificated shares by the time given in the notice and to keep them in certificated form for as long as the directors require. The notice can also say that the relevant shareholder may not change any identified shares which are certificated shares to CREST shares. If the shareholder does not comply with the notice, the directors can authorise any person to instruct the Operator to change any identified shares which are CREST shares to certificated shares in the name and on behalf of the relevant shareholder.
- (3) The board may at any time give notice cancelling a Default Notice. In addition, the board shall cancel such Default Notice within seven days of being satisfied that the default referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article has been rectified.
- (4) From seven days after the service of a Default Notice until such time as the board has cancelled the Default Notice, that member shall not, in respect of any shares specified in the Default Notice, be entitled to attend or vote at any general meeting of the Company or at any separate meeting of the holders of shares of any class, either personally or by proxy, or to be reckoned in a quorum or to exercise any right or privilege as a member in relation to general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of shares of any class in respect of any shares specified in the Default Notice.

(5) The Default Notice will apply to any further shares issued in right of the identified shares. The directors can also make the restrictions in the Default Notice apply to any right to an allotment of further shares associated with the identified shares.

(6) The board shall cause the register to have noted against the member upon whom a Default Notice has been served details of such Default Notice and the number of shares specified therein and shall cause such note to be deleted upon cancellation of the Default Notice or service of any further notice under paragraph (2) or (3) of this Article.

(7) Any Default Notice and any other notice served by the board pursuant to this Article shall be conclusive against the member concerned and its validity shall not be questioned by any person.

(8) A Default Notice shall automatically cease to have effect in respect of any share which is transferred upon registration of the relevant transfer.

(9) This Article does not restrict in any way the provisions of this legislation which apply to failures to comply with notices under the legislation.

77. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

PROXIES

78. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under its common seal or the hand of a duly authorised officer, attorney or other person authorised to sign it or, if the appointor is a corporation sole, under the hand of a duly authorised representative thereof, but the signature of such instrument need not be attested.

79. Instruments of proxy shall be in any usual form or in any other form which the board may approve and the board may, if it thinks fit, but subject to the provisions of the legislation, send out to all persons entitled to notice of and to attend and vote at any meeting forms of instrument of proxy for use at the meeting. Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting or poll concerned.

80. The instrument appointing a proxy must:

- (a) in the case of an appointment made in hard copy form, be received at the office (or such other place in the United Kingdom as may be specified by the Company for the receipt of appointments of proxy in hard copy form) not less than 48 hours (or such shorter time as the board may determine) before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote together with (if required by the board) any authority under which it is made or a copy of the authority, certified notarially or in accordance with the Powers of Attorney Act 1971 or in some other manner approved by the board;
- (b) in the case of an appointment made by electronic means, be received at the address specified by the Company for the receipt of appointments of proxy by electronic means not less than 48 hours (or such shorter time as the board may determine) before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote. Any authority pursuant to which such an appointment is made or a copy of the authority, certified notarially or in accordance with the Powers of Attorney Act 1971 or in some other manner approved by the board, must, if required by the board, be received at such address or at the office (or such other place in the United Kingdom as may be specified by the Company for the receipt of such documents) not less than 48 hours (or such shorter time as the board may determine) before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote;
- (c) in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it was demanded, be received as aforesaid not less than 24 hours (or such shorter time as the board may determine) before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; and
- (d) in the case of a poll taken following the conclusion of a meeting or adjourned meeting but 48 hours or less after it was demanded, be received as aforesaid before the end of the meeting at which it was demanded (or at such later time as the board may determine).

81. An instrument of proxy which is not deposited or delivered in a manner so permitted shall be invalid. No instrument of proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date stated in it as the date of its signature. When two or more valid but differing instruments of proxy are delivered in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting, the one which was delivered last (regardless of its date or of the date of its signature) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the others as regards that share; if the Company is unable to determine which was delivered last, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share. When calculating the periods mentioned in this Article the directors may decide not to take account of any part of a day that is not a working day.

82. A vote given or poll demanded in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or by the representative of a corporation or corporation sole duly authorised by resolution of its directors or other governing body shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or incapacity of the principal or revocation of the instrument of proxy or of the authority under which the instrument of proxy was signed provided that no intimation in writing of such death, incapacity or revocation shall have been received by the Company at the office or at such other place as is referred to in the preceding Article before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.

83. The Company shall not be obliged to check whether a proxy or representative of a corporation has voted in accordance with a shareholder's instructions and if a proxy or representative fails to do so, this will not affect the decision of the meeting (or adjourned meeting) or poll.

NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

84. Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) shall be not less than two but shall not be subject to any maximum.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

85. At every annual general meeting the following directors shall retire from office:

- (a) any director who has been appointed by the directors since the last annual general meeting, and
- (b) any director who held office at the time of the two preceding annual general meetings and who did not retire at either of them, and
- (c) any director who has been in office, other than as a director holding an executive office, for a continuous period of nine years or more at the date of the meeting.

Any director who retires at an annual general meeting may offer himself for re-appointment by the members.

86. At the meeting at which a director retires, the Company may (subject to Article 87) fill the vacated office by appointing a person thereto, and in default the retiring director shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been reappointed unless at the meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the reappointment of the director is put to the meeting and lost. In the event of the vacancy not being filled at such meeting, it may be filled by the board as a casual vacancy.

87. No person other than a director retiring shall be appointed or reappointed a director at any general meeting unless -

- (a) he is recommended by the board; or
- (b) not less than seven nor more thirty clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice signed by a member qualified to vote at the meeting (not being the person to be proposed) has been left at the office addressed to the secretary of the intention to propose that person for appointment or reappointment stating the particulars which would, if he were so appointed or reappointed be required to be included in the Company's register of directors, together with notice signed by that person of his willingness to be appointed or reappointed.

88. Except as otherwise authorised by the legislation, the appointment of any person proposed as a director shall be effected by a separate resolution.

89. Subject as aforesaid, the Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director.

90. The board may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director.

91. The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number, but, if the number of directors is reduced below any minimum number fixed by or in accordance with these Articles, the continuing director or directors, as the case may be, may act for the purpose of filling up vacancies in their number or of calling a general meeting of the Company, but not for any other purpose.

92. (1) No person shall be disqualified from being appointed or reappointed a director, and no director shall be required to vacate that office, by reason only of the fact that he has attained the age of seventy years or any other age nor shall it be necessary by reason of his age to give special notice under the legislation of any resolution.

(2) A director shall not be required to hold any shares of the Company by way of qualification.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

93. Any director (other than an alternate director) may at any time appoint any other director, or any other person approved by resolution of the board and willing to act, to be an alternate director and may remove from office an alternate director so appointed by him.

94. An alternate director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the board and of all meetings of committees of the board of which his appointor is a member, to attend, vote and be counted for the purpose of a quorum at any such meeting at which his appointor is not personally present, and generally to perform all the functions of his appointor as a director in his absence.

95. A director or any other person may act as alternate director to represent more than one director, and an alternate director shall be entitled at meetings of the board or any committee of the board to one vote for every director whom he represents in addition to his own vote (if any) as a director, but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

96. An alternate director may be repaid by the Company such expenses as might properly have been repaid to him if he had been a director but shall not in respect of his services as an alternate director be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company. An alternate director shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Company to the same extent as if he were a director.

97. An alternate director shall automatically cease to be an alternate director -

- (a) if his appointor ceases to be a director; but, if a director retires but is reappointed or deemed to have been reappointed at the meeting at which he retires, any appointment of an alternate director made by him which was in force immediately prior to his retirement shall continue after his reappointment;
- (b) on the happening of any event which, if he were a director, would cause him to vacate his office as director;
- (c) if he resigns his office by notice in writing left at the office; and
- (d) if his appointor shall terminate the appointment.

98. Any appointment or removal of an alternate director shall be by notice in writing to the Company signed by the director making or revoking the appointment and shall take effect in accordance with the terms of the notice (subject to any approval required by Article 93) upon receipt of such notice at the office or by the secretary.

99. Save as otherwise provided in the Articles, an alternate director shall be deemed during his appointment, for all purposes to be a director and shall alone be responsible for his own acts and defaults and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of the director appointing him.

POWERS OF THE BOARD

100. Subject to the provisions of the legislation and the Articles, and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the board which may exercise all the powers of the Company. No alteration of the Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the board which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the board by the Articles and a meeting of the board at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the board.

DELEGATION OF POWERS OF THE BOARD

101. The board may delegate any of its powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors. The board may also delegate to any director holding any executive office such of its powers as the board considers desirable to be exercised by him. Any such delegation (which may include authority to sub-delegate all or any of the powers delegated) may be made subject to any conditions the board may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of its own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as they are capable of applying. The board may co-opt onto any such committee persons other than directors, who may enjoy voting rights in the committee. The co-opted members shall be less than one-half of the total membership of the committee and a resolution of any committee shall be effective only if a majority of the members present are directors.

102. (1) The board may make such arrangements as it thinks fit for managing any of the affairs of the Company, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and may establish local or divisional boards and appoint any persons to be members of the local or divisional boards, or any managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration. The board may delegate to any local or divisional board, manager or agent any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in or exercisable by the board (other than the power to borrow and make calls), with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise the members of any local or divisional board, or any of them, to fill any vacancies and to act notwithstanding vacancies. Any appointment or delegation made pursuant to this Article may be made upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the board may decide and the board may remove any person so appointed and may revoke or vary the delegation but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of the revocation or variation shall be affected by it.

(2) The board may from time to time make and vary such regulations as it thinks fit respecting the keeping of dominion registers of members pursuant to the legislation.

103. The board may from time to time by power of attorney appoint any company, firm or person, or any fluctuating body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the board, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the board under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as it may think fit. Any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the board thinks fit and may also authorise any such attorney to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.

104. The board may appoint any person to any office or employment having a designation or title including the word "director" or attach to any existing office or employment with the Company such a designation or title and may terminate any such appointment or the use of any such designation or title. The inclusion of the word "director" in the designation or title of any such office or employment (other than the office of chief executive or joint chief executive or deputy or assistant chief executive director or managing director) shall not imply that the holder is a director of the Company, nor shall the holder thereby be empowered in any respect to act as, or be deemed to be a director of the Company for any of the purposes of the Articles.

BORROWING POWERS

105. The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to raise or borrow money without limit as to amount and upon such terms and in such manner as they think fit, and to grant any mortgage, charge or standard security over its undertaking, property and assets both present and future (including uncalled capital), or any part thereof, and subject (in the case of any security convertible into shares) to section 549 of the Companies Act 2006 to issue debentures, debenture stock, and other securities whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.

DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

106. The office of a director shall be vacated if -

- (a) he ceases to be a director by virtue of any provisions of the legislation or the Articles or he becomes prohibited by law from being a director; or
- (b) he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally; or
- (c) he is or has been suffering from mental or physical ill health and the directors pass a resolution removing the director from office; or
- (d) (not being a Chairman or Managing Director holding office as such for a fixed term) he resigns his office by notice in writing to the Company; or
- (e) he shall for more than six consecutive months have been absent without permission of the board from meetings of the board held during that period and his alternate director

(if any) shall not during such period have attended in his stead and the board resolves that his office be vacated.

107. (1) The Company may, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the legislation, by ordinary resolution of which special notice has been given remove any director from office (notwithstanding any provision of these Articles or of any agreement between the Company and such director, but without prejudice to any claim he may have for damages for breach of any such agreement) and appoint another person in place of a director so removed from office and any person so appointed shall be treated for the purpose of determining the time at which he or any other director is to retire as if he had become a director on the day on which the director in whose place he is appointed was last elected a director. In default of such appointment the vacancy arising upon the removal of a director from office may be filled as a casual vacancy.

(2) In addition to any power to remove directors conferred by the legislation, the Company can pass a special resolution to remove a director from office even though his time in office has not ended and can (subject to these Articles) appoint a person to replace a director who has been removed in this way by passing an ordinary resolution.

REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

108. (1) The directors shall be paid out of the funds of the Company by way of remuneration for their services, fees not to exceed in aggregate £2,000,000 per annum (to be divided between the directors in such proportions as they shall determine) or such higher aggregate amount as the Company may by ordinary resolution determine, and accrues from day to day. A director holding office, for part only a year shall be entitled to a proportionate part of a full year's remuneration.

(2) Any director who by request of the board performs extra or special services or goes abroad for any purposes of the Company shall be entitled to receive such sum for expenses and such remuneration as the directors may think fit either in addition to or in substitution for any other remuneration he may be entitled to receive.

DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

109. The directors shall be entitled to be re-paid all such reasonable (including travelling, hotel, and other) expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the board or committees of the board or general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company or which they otherwise properly incur in connection with the discharge of their duties. The Company may also fund a director's expenditure on defending proceedings as provided in the legislation.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

110. The board may from time to time appoint one or more of its body to the office of Chairman, Chief Executive, Managing Director, or to any other office (except that of auditor), employment or place of profit in the Company, for such period and on such terms (as to remuneration and otherwise) as it thinks fit and may revoke such appointment (but so that such revocation shall be without prejudice to any rights or claims which the person whose appointment is revoked may have against the Company by reason of such revocation). The board may permit any person appointed to be a director to continue in any other office or employment held by him before he was so appointed.

111. A director appointed to the office of Chairman, Chief Executive or Managing Director shall (subject to the provisions of any contract between himself and the Company) be subject to the same provisions as to retirement, resignation and removal as the other directors.

112. Any appointment of a director to the office of Chairman, Chief Executive, Managing Director or an executive officer shall terminate if he ceases to be a director but without prejudice to any rights or claims which he may have against the Company by reason of such cesser. A director appointed to an executive office shall not ipso facto cease to be a director if his appointment to such executive office terminates.

113. The emoluments of any Chairman, Chief Executive, Managing Director or director holding any other executive office for his services as such shall be determined by the board, and may be of any description, and (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) may include admission to or continuance of membership of any scheme (including any share acquisition scheme) or fund instituted or established or financed or contributed to by the Company for the provision of pensions, life assurance or other benefits for employees or their dependants, or the payment of a pension or other benefits to him or his dependants on or after retirement or death, apart from membership of any such scheme or fund.

114. The board may entrust to and confer upon a Chairman, Chief Executive, Managing Director or director holding any other executive office any of the powers exercisable by it upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as it thinks fit, and in the case of a Chief Executive or Managing Director, either collaterally with or to the exclusion of its own powers and may from time to time revoke, withdraw or vary all or any of such powers.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

115. Conflicts of interest requiring authorisation by directors

(1) The directors may, subject to the quorum and voting requirements set out in this Article, authorise any matter which would otherwise involve a director breaching his duty under the legislation to avoid conflicts of interest ("Conflict").

(2) A director seeking authorisation in respect of a Conflict must tell the directors of the nature and extent of his interest in a Conflict as soon as possible. The director must give the directors sufficient details of the relevant matter to enable them to decide how to address the Conflict together with any additional information which they may request.

(3) Any director (including the relevant director) may propose that the relevant director be authorised in relation to any matter the subject of a Conflict. Such proposal and any authority given by the directors shall be effected in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the directors under the provisions of these Articles except that:

- (a) the relevant director and any other director with a similar interest will not count in the quorum and will not vote on a resolution giving such authority; and
- (b) the relevant director and any other director with a similar interest may, if the other directors so decide, be excluded from any meeting of the directors while the Conflict is under consideration.

(4) Where the directors give authority in relation to a Conflict or where any of the situations described in Article 115(2) apply in relation to a director ("Relevant Situation"):

- (a) they may (whether at the time of giving the authority or subsequently) (i) require that the relevant director is excluded from the receipt of information, the participation in discussion and/or the making of decisions (whether at directors' meetings or otherwise) related to the Conflict or Relevant Situation; and (ii) impose upon the relevant director such other terms for the purpose of dealing with the Conflict or Relevant Situation as they think fit;
- (b) the relevant director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict or Relevant Situation;

- (c) the directors may also provide that where the relevant director obtains (otherwise than through his position as a director of the Company) information that is confidential to a third party, the director will not be obliged to disclose that information to the Company, or to use or apply the information in relation to the Company's affairs, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;
- (d) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and
- (e) the directors may revoke or vary such authority at any time but this will not affect anything done by the relevant director prior to such revocation in accordance with the terms of such authority.

116. Other conflicts of interest

(1) If a director knows that he is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a proposed contract with the Company or a contract that has been entered into by the Company, he must tell the other directors of the nature and extent of that interest in accordance with the legislation.

(2) If he has disclosed the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with paragraph (1), a director can do any one or more of the following:

- (a) have any kind of interest in a contract with or involving the Company or another company in which the Company has an interest;
- (b) hold any other office or place of profit with the Company (except that of auditor) in conjunction with his office of director for such period and upon such terms, including as to remuneration, as the directors may decide;
- (c) alone, or through a firm with which he is associated do paid professional work for the Company or another company in which the Company has an interest (other than as auditor);
- (d) be or become a director or other officer of, or employed by or otherwise be interested in any holding company or subsidiary company of the Company or any other company in which the Company has an interest; and

- (e) be or become a director of any other company in which the Company does not have an interest and which cannot reasonably be regarded as giving rise to a conflict of interest at the time of his appointment as a director of that other company.

117. Benefits

A director does not have to hand over to the Company any benefit he receives or profit he makes as a result of anything authorised under Article 115(1) or allowed under Article 116(2) nor is any type of contract authorised under Article 115(1) or allowed under Article 116(2) liable to be avoided.

118. Quorum and voting requirements

(1) A director cannot vote or be counted in the quorum on a resolution of the directors relating to appointing that director to a position with the Company or a company in which the Company has an interest or the terms or the termination of the appointment.

(2) This paragraph applies if the directors are considering proposals about appointing two or more directors to positions with the Company or any company in which the Company has an interest. It also applies if the directors are considering setting or changing the terms of their appointment. These proposals can be split up to deal with each director separately. If this is done, each director can vote and be included in the quorum for each resolution, except any resolution concerning him or concerning the appointment of another director to a position with a company in which the Company is interested where the director has a Relevant Interest in it.

(3) A director cannot vote or be counted in the quorum on a resolution of the directors about a contract in which he has an interest and, if he does vote, his vote will not be counted, but this prohibition will not apply to any resolution where that interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or where that interest is included in the following list:-

- (a) a resolution about giving him any guarantee, indemnity or security for money which he or any other person has lent or obligations he or any other person has undertaken at the request of or for the benefit of the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings;
- (b) a resolution about giving any guarantee, indemnity or security to another person for a debt or obligation which is owed by the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings to that other person if the director has taken responsibility for some or all of that debt or obligation. The director can take this responsibility by giving a guarantee, indemnity or security;

- (c) a resolution about giving him any other indemnity where all other directors are also being offered indemnities on substantially the same terms;
- (d) a resolution about the Company funding his expenditure on defending proceedings or the Company doing something to enable him to avoid incurring such expenditure where all other directors are being offered substantially the same arrangements;
- (e) a resolution relating to an offer by the Company or any of its subsidiary undertakings of any shares or debentures or other securities for subscription or purchase if the director takes part because he is a holder of shares, debentures or other securities or if he takes part in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of the offer;
- (f) a resolution about a contract in which he has an interest because of his interest in shares or debentures or other securities of the Company or because of any other interest in or through the Company;
- (g) a resolution about a contract involving any other company if the director has an interest of any kind in that company (including an interest by holding any position in that company or by being a shareholder in that company). This does not apply if he knows that he has a Relevant Interest in that company;
- (h) a resolution about a contract relating to a pension fund, superannuation or similar scheme or retirement, death or disability benefits scheme or employees' share scheme which gives the director benefits which are also generally given to the employees to whom the fund or scheme relates;
- (i) a resolution about a contract relating to an arrangement for the benefit of employees of the Company or of any of its subsidiary undertakings which only gives him benefits which are also generally given to the employees to whom the arrangement relates; and

- (j) a resolution about a contract relating to any insurance which the Company can buy or renew for the benefit of directors or of a group of people which includes directors.

(4) A director will be treated as having a Relevant Interest in a company if he holds an interest in shares representing one per cent. or more of a class of equity share capital (calculated exclusive of any shares of that class in that company held as treasury shares) or of the voting rights of that company. In relation to an alternate director, an interest of his appointor shall be treated as an interest of the alternate director without prejudice to any interest which the alternate director has otherwise. Interests which are unknown to the director and which it is unreasonable to expect him to know about are ignored.

(5) Where a company in which a director has a Relevant Interest is interested in a contract, the director will also be treated as being interested in that contract.

(6) Subject to these Articles, the directors can exercise or arrange for the exercise of the voting rights attached to any shares in another company held by the Company and the voting rights which they have as directors of that company in any way that they decide. This includes voting in favour of a resolution appointing any of them as directors or officers of that company and deciding their remuneration. Subject to these Articles, they can also vote and be counted in the quorum as directors of the Company in connection with any of these things.

(7) If a question comes up at a meeting of the directors about whether a director (other than the chairman of the meeting) has an interest in a contract and whether it is likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or whether he can vote or be counted in the quorum and the director does not agree to abstain from voting on the issue or not to be counted in the quorum, the question must be referred to the chairman of the meeting. The chairman of the meeting's ruling about any other director is final and conclusive unless the nature or extent of the director's interest (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed to the directors. If the question comes up about the chairman of the meeting, the question shall be decided by a resolution of the directors. The chairman of the meeting cannot vote on the question but can be counted in the quorum. The directors' resolution about the chairman of the meeting is conclusive, unless the nature or extent of the chairman's interest (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed to the directors.

119. General

- (1) References in Articles 115 to 117 to
 - (a) a contract include references to an existing or proposed contract and to an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement whether or not it is a contract; and
 - (b) a conflict of interest include a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.

(2) The Company can by ordinary resolution suspend or relax the provisions of Articles 115 to 117 to any extent or ratify any contract which has not been properly authorised in accordance with those Articles.

GRATUITIES AND PENSIONS

120. The board may (by establishment of or maintenance of schemes or otherwise) provide benefits, whether by the payment of gratuities, pensions, annuities, allowances or by insurance, or otherwise, to or for the benefit of any past or present director or employee who has held any salaried office or place of profit with the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any company associated with, or any business acquired by, any of them, or to or for the benefit of persons who were related to or dependants of any such director or employee and may (as well before as after he ceases to hold such office or employment) contribute to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such pension, annuity, allowance, gratuity or other benefit and may make payments for or towards the insurance of any such person. No director or former director shall be accountable to the Company or the members for any benefit provided pursuant to this Article and the receipt of any such benefit shall not disqualify any person from being or becoming a director of the Company.

121. Pursuant to section 247 of the Companies Act 2006, the board is hereby authorised to make such provision as may seem appropriate for the benefit of any persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries in connection with the cessation or the transfer of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or any subsidiary. Any such provision shall be made by a resolution of the board in accordance with the said section.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

122. Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the board may regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit. A director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall, call a meeting of the board. Notice of a board meeting shall be deemed to be properly given to a director if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in writing to him at his last known address or any other address given by him to the Company for this purpose. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote. Any director may waive notice of a meeting and any such waiver may be retrospective.

123. The quorum for the transaction of the business of the board may be fixed by the board and unless so fixed at any other number shall be two. A person who holds office only as an alternate director shall, if his appointor is not present, be counted in the quorum. For the purpose of determining whether the quorum for the transaction of the business of the board exists:-

- (a) in the case of a resolution agreed by directors in telephonic communications, all such directors shall be counted in the quorum; and
- (b) in the case of a meeting of directors, in addition to the directors present at the meeting, any director in telephonic communication with such meeting shall be counted in the quorum.

124. Unless he is unwilling to do so, the director appointed as Chairman, or in his stead the director appointed as deputy chairman, shall preside at every meeting of the board at which he is present. If there is no director holding either of those offices, or if neither the chairman nor the deputy chairman is willing to preside or neither of them is present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

125. All acts done by a meeting of the board, or of a committee or of a sub-committee of the board, or by a person acting as a director or by an alternate director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of or continuance in office of any director or any alternate director or any person acting as aforesaid or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified and had continued to be a director or, as the case may be, an alternate director and had been entitled to vote.

126. (1) A resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the board or of a committee of the board (not being less than the number of directors required to form a quorum of the board) shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the board or (as the case may be) a committee of the board duly convened and held and for this purpose -

- (a) a resolution may consist of several documents to the same effect each signed by one or more directors;
- (b) a resolution signed by an alternate director need not also be signed by his appointor; and
- (c) a resolution signed by a director who has appointed an alternate director need not also be signed by the alternate director in that capacity.

(2) Without prejudice to the first sentence of Article 122, a meeting of the board or of a committee or of a sub-committee of the board may consist of a conference between directors who are not all in one place, but of whom each is able (directly or by telephonic communication) to speak to each of the others, and to be heard by each of the others simultaneously. A director taking part in such a conference shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote or be counted in a quorum accordingly. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating in the conference is assembled, or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting then is. The word "meeting" in the Articles shall be construed accordingly.

SECRETARY

127. (1) Subject to the provisions of the legislation, the secretary shall be appointed by the board for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as it may think fit; and any secretary so appointed may be removed by the board.

(2) A provision of the legislation or these Articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a director and the secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as, or in place of, the secretary.

MINUTES

128. The board shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose -

- (a) of all appointments of officers made by the board; and

- (b) of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the board and of any committee of the board; and
- (c) of all proceedings at meetings of the Company, of the holders of any class of shares in the Company, of the board, and of committees of the board, including the names of the directors present at each such meeting.

Any such minutes, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting to which they relate or of the meeting at which they are read, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

THE SEAL

129. The seal shall only be used by the authority of a resolution of the board or of a committee of the board. The board may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is affixed and unless otherwise so determined it shall be signed by at least one director and the secretary or by at least two directors or by one director in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.

130. All forms of certificates for shares, or debentures or representing any other form of security (other than letters of allotment or scrip certificates) shall except to the extent that the terms and conditions for the time being relating thereto otherwise provide be issued under the seal in the manner above provided; but the board may by resolution determine either generally or in any particular case that as regards any certificates for shares or debentures or representing any other form of security of the Company such signature or signatures shall be dispensed with or affixed by some mechanical means. Any certificate signed in accordance with the foregoing shall be held to have been validly signed and shall be presumed to be authentic whether or not any signature is attested by witnesses.

131. The Company may exercise the powers conferred by section 49 of the Companies Act 2006 with regard to having an official seal for use abroad and such powers shall be vested in the Board.

DIVIDENDS

132. Subject to the provisions of the legislation, the Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends in accordance with the respective rights of the members, but no dividend or interim dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the board.

133. Subject to the provisions of the legislation, the board may pay interim dividends if it appears to the board that they are justified by the profits of the Company available for distribution. If the share capital is divided into different classes, the board may pay interim dividends on shares which confer deferred or non-preferred rights with regard to dividend as well as on shares which confer preferential rights with regard to dividend, but no interim dividend shall be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear. The board may also pay any dividend payable at a fixed rate on any shares of the Company with preferential rights half-yearly or otherwise if it appears to the board that the profits available for distribution justify the payment. Provided the board acts in good faith it shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on any shares having deferred or non-preferred rights.

134. Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid; but no amount paid on a share in advance of the date on which a call is payable shall be treated for the purposes of this Article as paid on the share. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but, if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend accordingly.

135. A general meeting declaring a dividend may, upon the recommendation of the board, direct that it shall be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets, and in particular of paid up shares or debentures of any other company, and, where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, the board may settle the same as it thinks fit and in particular may issue fractional certificates or authorise any person to sell and transfer any fractions or disregard fractions altogether and fix the value for distribution of any assets and may determine that cash shall be paid to any member upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of members and may vest any assets in trustees.

136. The board may deduct from any dividend or other moneys payable to any member in respect of a share any moneys presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to shares in the Company.

137. (1) Any resolution declaring a dividend on shares of any class, whether a resolution of the Company in general meeting or a resolution of the directors, may specify that the same shall be payable to the persons registered as the holders of such shares at the close of business on a particular date, notwithstanding that it may be a date prior to that on which the resolution is passed, and thereupon the dividend shall be payable to them in accordance with their respective holdings so registered, but without prejudice to the rights inter se in respect of such dividend of transferors and transferees of any such shares.

(2) The Board may pay the dividends or interest payable on shares in respect of which any person is by transmission entitled to be registered as holder to such person upon production of such certificate and evidence as would be required if such person desired to be registered as a member in respect of such shares.

138. Any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share may be paid by cheque or warrant sent by post to the address in the register of the holder or person entitled or, if two or more persons are the holders of the share or are jointly entitled to it by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder or otherwise by operation of law, to the address in the register of any one of those joint holders or to such person and to such address as the person or persons entitled may in writing direct. Where the person entitled is also an employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, the cheques may instead be sent through the Company's or, as the case may be, subsidiary's internal postal system. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person or persons entitled or to such other person as the person or persons entitled may in writing direct and shall be sent at the risk of the person entitled, and payment of the cheque shall be a good discharge to the Company. Any joint holder or other person jointly entitled to a share as aforesaid may give receipts for any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of the share. Any such dividend or other money may also be paid by any other method (including direct debit, bank transfer and dividend warrant) which the board considers appropriate.

139. No dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.

140. If:

- (a) a shareholder (or all joint shareholders) does not specify an address, or does not specify an account of a type prescribed by the directors, or does not specify other details, and in each case that information is necessary in order to make a payment of a dividend or other money in the way in which under this Article the directors have decided that the payment is to be made or by which the shareholder (or all joint shareholders) has validly elected to receive the payment; or

- (b) payment cannot be made by the Company using the information provided by the shareholder (or all joint shareholders), then the dividend or other money will be treated as unclaimed for the purposes of these Articles.

141. Any dividend which has remained unclaimed for twelve years from the date when it became due for payment shall, if the board so resolves, be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the Company. The payment by the board of any unclaimed dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee thereof. The Company shall be entitled to cease sending dividend warrants and cheques by post or otherwise to a member if such instruments have been returned undelivered to, or left uncashed by, that member on at least two consecutive occasions. The entitlement conferred on the Company by this Article in respect of any member shall cease if such member claims a dividend or cashes a dividend warrant or cheque.

142. Cheques, warrants and similar financial instruments are sent, and payment in any other way is made, at the risk of the person who is entitled to the money. The Company is treated as having paid a dividend if the cheque, warrant or similar financial instrument is cleared or if a payment is made through CREST, bank transfer or other electronic means. The Company will not be responsible for a payment which is lost or delayed.

143. Dividends can be paid to a person who has become entitled to a share by law as if he were the holder of the share.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS AND RESERVES

144. The Company may, upon the recommendation of the board -

- (a) subject as hereinafter provided, resolve to capitalise any undistributed profits or retained earnings of the Company not required for paying the fixed dividends on any preference shares or other shares issued on special conditions (whether or not they are available for distribution) or any sum standing to the credit of any reserve or other fund, including the Company's share premium account and capital redemption reserve;

- (b) appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the members on the record date specified in the relevant resolution who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions and apply such sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company of a nominal amount equal to that sum, and allot the shares, debentures or other obligations credited as fully paid to those members, or as they may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other; but the share premium account, the capital redemption reserve, and any profits which are not available for distribution may, for the purposes of this Article, only be applied in paying up shares to be allotted to members credited as fully paid;
- (c) make such provision (by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise) as it thinks fit for the case of shares, debentures or obligations becoming distributable in fractions;
- (d) authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the members concerned into an agreement with the Company providing for either -
 - (i) the allotment to such members respectively, credited as fully paid, of any shares, debentures or other obligations to which they are entitled upon such capitalisation; or
 - (ii) the payment up by the Company on behalf of such members (by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised) of the amounts or any part of the amounts, remaining unpaid on their existing shares and any agreement made under such authority shall be binding on all such members; and

- (e) generally do all acts and things required to give effect to such resolution as aforesaid.

ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

145. (1) No member shall (as such) have any right of inspecting any accounting records or other book or document of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorised by the board or by ordinary resolution of the Company.

(2) Subject to Article 150 below, a copy of every balance sheet and profit and loss account (including any documents required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the Company in general meeting and of the directors' and auditors' reports shall, at least twenty-one days previously to the meeting, be supplied to every member and to every debenture holder of the Company of whose address the Company is aware, and to every other person who is entitled to receive notice of meetings from the Company under the provisions of the legislation or of the Articles or, in the case of joint holders of any share or debenture, to one of the joint holders, and copies shall be sent to The Stock Exchange in accordance with any obligations for the time being binding the Company.

146. (1) Auditors of the Company shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with the legislation.

(2) Subject to Article 150 below, the auditors' report to the members made pursuant to the statutory provisions as to audit shall be read before the Company in general meeting and shall be open to inspection by any member; and in accordance with the legislation every member shall be entitled to be furnished with a copy of the balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) and auditors' report.

METHODS OF SERVICE

147. Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the Articles shall be in writing except that a notice calling a meeting of the board need not be in writing.

148. The Company send or supply any notice, document, including a share certificate, or other information to a member either personally or by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his address in the register or by leaving it at that address or through CREST (where it relates to CREST shares). Where appropriate, the Company may send or supply any notice, document, including a share certificate, or other information in electronic form to an address notified by the relevant member to the Company for that purpose or by making it available on a website and notifying the member of its availability. The Company may at any time and in its sole discretion choose to serve, send or supply notices, documents or other information in hard copy form alone to some or all members.

149. In the case of joint holders of a share, all notices shall be given to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register in respect of the joint holding and notice so given shall be deemed for all purposes sufficient notice to all the joint holders. A member whose registered address is not within the United Kingdom and who gives to the Company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be given to him shall be entitled to have notices given to him at that address, but otherwise no such member shall be entitled to receive any notice from the Company. Where there are joint holders of a share, anything which needs to be agreed or specified in relation to any notice, document or other information to be sent or supplied to them can be agreed or specified by any one of the joint shareholders. The agreement or specification of the senior will be accepted to the exclusion of the agreement or specification of the other joint shareholder(s). For this purpose, seniority will be determined by the order in which the joint shareholders' names stand in the register in respect of the joint shareholding.

150. If on three consecutive occasions any notice, document or other information sent or supplied to a shareholder has been returned undelivered or the Company is made aware that the shareholder is no longer contactable at the delivery address, the Company need not send or supply further notices, documents or other information to that shareholder until he has communicated with the Company and supplied the Company (or its agents) with a new registered address, or a postal address for the service of notices and the despatch or supply of documents and other information, or has informed the Company of an address for the service of notices and the sending or supply of documents and other information in electronic form. Any notice, document or other information sent by post will be treated as returned undelivered if the notice, document or other information is sent back to the Company (or its agents), and any notice, document or other information sent or supplied in electronic form will be treated as returned undelivered if the Company (or its agents) receives notification that the notice, document or other information was not delivered to the address to which it was sent.

151. A member present, either in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the Company or of the holders of any class of shares in the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

152. A notice may be given by the Company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or mental disorder of a member by sending or delivering it, in any manner authorised by the Articles for the giving of notice to a member, addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt or by any like description at the address, if any, within the United Kingdom supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been supplied, a notice may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

153. Every person who becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share which, before his name is entered in the register, has been duly given to a person from whom he derives his title, provided that no person who becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any Default Notice issued under Article 76 to a person from whom he derives his title.

154. (1) Any notice, document or other information, if sent by post, shall be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day following that on which it was put in the post and, in proving service, sending or supply, it shall be sufficient to prove that the notice or document was properly addressed, stamped and put in the post. Any notice or other document not sent by post but left at a registered address shall be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day it was so left.

(2) Any notice, document or other information sent by post to, or left at the address in the register of, any member in pursuance of these Articles shall, notwithstanding such member be then deceased or bankrupt, and whether or not the Company has notice of his death or bankruptcy, be deemed to have been duly served in respect of any share, whether held solely or jointly with other persons by such member, until some other person be registered in his stead as holder or joint holder thereof, and such service shall for all purposes be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on all persons interested (whether jointly with or as claiming through or under him) in such share.

(3) Any notice, document or other information served, sent or supplied by the Company using electronic means shall be deemed to have been received on the day on which it was sent notwithstanding that the Company subsequently sends a hard copy of such notice, document or other information by post. Any notice, document or other information made available on a website is treated as being received on the day on which the notice, document or other information was first made available on the website, or, if later, when a notice of availability is received or treated as being received by the member in accordance with these Articles. In proving that any notice, document or other information served, sent or supplied by electronic means was served, sent or supplied, it is sufficient to show that it was properly addressed.

155. If a notice is sent through CREST, it is treated as being received when the Company, or any CREST participant acting for the Company, sends the issuer-instruction relating to the notice, document or other information.

156. (1) If at any time, in the opinion of the directors, the Company is unable effectively or satisfactorily to convene a general meeting by notices sent through the post in the United Kingdom as a result of the suspension or curtailment of postal services, notice of such general meeting may be sufficiently given by advertisement in the United Kingdom. In any such case the Company shall send confirmatory copies of the notice by post if at least seven days prior to the meeting the posting of notices to addresses throughout the United Kingdom again becomes practicable.

(2) Any notice given by advertisement shall be advertised on the same date in at least two daily newspapers having a national circulation and such notice shall be deemed to have been served at noon on the day when the advertisement appears.

157. Where the Company sends or supplies notices, documents or other information to shareholders, it can do so by reference to the shareholders' register as it stands at any time not more than 15 days before the date the notice, document or other information is sent or supplied. Any change of details on the register after that time will not invalidate the sending or supply and the Company is not obliged to send or supply the same notice, document or other information to any person entered on the shareholders' register after the date selected by the Company.

DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

158. The Company shall be entitled to destroy all instruments of transfer of shares which have been registered at any time after the expiration of six years from the date of registration thereof and all dividend mandates or variations or cancellations thereof and notifications of change of address at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of recording thereof and all share certificates which have been cancelled at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of the cancellation thereof and all paid dividend warrants and cheques at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of actual payment thereof and all instruments of proxy which have been used for the purpose of a poll at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of such use and all instruments of proxy which have not been used for the purpose of a poll at any time after one month from the end of the meeting to which the instrument of proxy relates and at which no poll was demanded. It shall conclusively be presumed in favour of the Company that every entry in the register purporting to have been made on the basis of an instrument of transfer or other document so destroyed was duly and properly made, that every instrument of transfer so destroyed was a valid and effective instrument duly and properly registered, that every share certificate so destroyed was a valid and effective certificate duly and properly cancelled and that every other document hereinbefore mentioned so destroyed was a valid and effective document in accordance with the recorded particulars thereof in the books or records of the Company, Provided always that:-

- (a) the provisions aforesaid shall apply only to the destruction of a document in good faith and without notice of any claim (regardless of the parties thereto) to which the document might be relevant;
- (b) nothing herein contained shall be construed as imposing upon the Company any liability in respect of the destruction of any such document earlier than as aforesaid or in any other circumstances which would not attach to the Company in the absence of this Article; and
- (c) references herein to the destruction of any document include references to the disposal thereof in any manner.

UNTRACED SHAREHOLDERS

159. (1) The Company shall be entitled to sell the shares of a member or the shares to which a person is entitled by virtue of transmission on death, bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law if and provided that -

- (a) during the period of twelve years prior to the date of the publication of the advertisements referred to in paragraph (b) below (or, if published on different dates, the first thereof) at least three dividends in respect of the shares in question have been declared and all dividend payments have been made in the manner authorised by the Articles in respect of the shares in question have remained uncashed; and
- (b) the Company shall as soon as practicable after expiry of the said period of twelve years have inserted advertisements both in a national daily newspaper and in a newspaper circulating in the area of the last known address of such member or other person giving notice of its intention to sell the shares; and
- (c) during the said period of twelve years and the period of three months following the publication of the said advertisements the Company shall have received no indication either of the whereabouts or of the existence of such member or person; and

- (d) if the shares are listed on The Stock Exchange, notice shall have been given to the Quotations Department of The Stock Exchange of the Company's intention to make such sale prior to the publication of advertisements.

If during any twelve year period referred to in paragraph (a) above, further shares have been issued in right of those held at the beginning of such period or of any previously issued during such period and all the other requirements of this Article have been satisfied in regard to the further shares, the Company may also sell the further shares.

(2) To give effect to any such sale, the board may authorise some person to sign an instrument of transfer of the shares sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser and an instrument of transfer signed by that person shall be as effective as if it had been signed by the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the shares. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings in reference to the sale.

(3) The net proceeds of sale shall belong to the Company which shall be obliged to account to the former member or other person previously entitled as aforesaid for an amount equal to such proceeds and shall enter the name of such former member or other person in the books of the Company as a creditor for such amount. No trust shall be created in respect of the debt, no interest shall be payable in respect of the same and the Company shall not be required to account for any money earned on the net proceeds, which may be employed in the business of the Company or invested in such investments as the board from time to time thinks fit.

WINDING UP

160. The power of sale of a liquidator shall include a power to sell wholly or partially for shares or debentures or other obligations of another company, either then already constituted or about to be constituted for the purpose of carrying out the sale.

INDEMNITY

161. Subject to the provisions of the legislation but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a director or former director may otherwise be entitled:-

- (i) the Company may indemnify any director or former director of the Company or of any associated company against any liability and may purchase and maintain for any such director or former director insurance against any liability;

- (ii) without prejudice to the generality of (i) above, every director or former director of the Company or of any associated company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the court, from liability for negligence, default or breach of duty or trust in relation to the affairs of the Company;
- (iii) no director or former director of the Company or of any associated Company shall be accountable to the Company or the members for any benefit provided pursuant to this Article and the receipt of any such benefit shall not disqualify any person from being or becoming a director of the Company; and
- (iv) for the purposes of (ii) above, the "affairs of the Company" include the activities of the Company as trustee of any occupational pension scheme of the Company.

162. These Articles shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law.
