Mr. Otto Folprecht reports

VODIS USA TENANT READY TO DELIVER SUCCESSFUL MARIJUANA CROP FOR RECREATIONAL MARKET

January 6, 2016 - Vancouver, British Columbia – Vodis Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the "Company" or "Vodis") (CSE: VP / FSE: 1JV) and its' subsidiary Vodis USA is pleased to announce that its' tenant - Our Church International, LLC ("OCI") has reported a successful completion of the first production cycle that exceeds the requirements of the Washington State Liquor and Cannabis Board . OCI further provided a report on one of the flagship strains to the Company that shows a cannabinoid count exceeding 38% that has been confirmed by a third party laboratory. By meeting this milestone, OCI is in a position to start supplying the Washington State recreational market with its' high quality product. Vodis has delivered a state-of-the-art production facility to OCI as announced in October of 2015.

Otto Folprecht, CEO and Director commented, "After delivering our first turn-key solution, our tenant has reported an exceptional first production cycle. As we continue to look to expand and secure long-term partnerships, the Company is exploring multiple opportunities to further develop new turn-key facilities and lease these facilities to various licensed businesses in the Washington State recreational marijuana industry".

Separately, the Company has granted stock options to purchase 1,000,000 shares, exercisable at a price of $0.19 per share for a period of five years to directors and consultants.
