RIWI Wins New Contract with a Top International Bank, Expands Finance Data Offerings

Toronto, ON – RIWI Corp. (CSE: RIW) (the "Company" or "RIWI") is pleased to announce that its client, a top-20 bank in the world as measured by assets under management, has awarded the Company a second contract to provide additional services in the amount of US $238,000. Work on this second contract has begun.

RIWI earns recurring revenue with the bank pursuant to a three-year long-term agreement ("LTA") signed in August 2017. RIWI signed the first US $315,000 contract in September 2017 under the LTA.

RIWI has added new capabilities to its Global Finance data-on-demand offerings, including: automated dashboards, time-series analysis and real-time insights about fast-changing investor sentiment, advertising effectiveness and product usage in all countries and regions of the world.

Change in Reporting Currency to US Dollars

RIWI also announces that it has changed its reporting currency in its financial statements from Canadian dollars to US dollars, for fiscal periods beginning on January 1, 2018. This change reflects RIWI's revenue, which is now predominantly US dollar denominated. Historical financial information will be restated to US dollars for comparative purposes.
