Kutcho Copper Receives Section 11 Order and Progresses to Next Phase of Environmental Assessment and Permitting Process

Vancouver, B.C., December 13th, 2019. Kutcho Copper Corp. (TSXV: KC) (OTC: KCCFF) (“Kutcho Copper” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has received a Section 11 Order from the British Columbia Environmental Assessment Office (“BCEAO”) on December 12th, 2019.

The Section 11 order defines the scope of the Environmental Assessment and the Indigenous Nations Kutcho and British Columbia will engage with through the process. With the passing of Bill C-69 (Canadian Impact Assessment Act) and associated threshold regulations, the Kutcho Project is not required to undertake a federal environmental assessment. The Kutcho Project is located within the overlapping Territories of the Kaska Dena and Tahltan Nations.

Kutcho Copper President & CEO Vince Sorace notes, “The issuing of the Section 11 Order by BCEAO is an important initial milestone in the Environmental Assessment process (“EA”) for Kutcho. We are looking forward to working hard and collaboratively on our journey through this permitting process and to a completed EA application.”
