

Crown Capital Announces Board Change

CALGARY, Jan. 11, 2019 /CNW/ - Crown Capital Partners Inc. ("Crown" or the "Corporation") (TSX: CRWN), which provides growth capital to successful mid-market companies, today announced that Peter Snucins has resigned as a member of the Board of Directors of Crown.

"On behalf of the Board of Directors, I wish to thank Peter for the many contributions he made to Crown Capital and the Board," said Alan Rowe, Chair of the Board of Directors.

About Crown Capital Partners (TSX:CRWN)

Founded in 2000, Crown is a leading specialty finance company that provides growth capital to a diversified group of successful mid-market companies that are seeking alternatives to banks and private equity funds. Crown provides customized solutions in the form of loans, royalties, and other structures with minimal or no ownership dilution. In addition to deploying capital as a principal investor, Crown develops, manages and co-invests in alternative investment funds, including Crown Partners Fund and Crown Capital Power Fund.

SOURCE Crown Capital Partners Inc.

View original content: <http://www.newswire.ca/en/releases/archive/January2019/11/c6322.html>

%SEDAR: 00037206E

For further information: Craig Armitage, Investor Relations, craig.armitage@crowncapital.ca, (416) 347-8954

CO: Crown Capital Partners Inc.

CNW 17:00e 11-JAN-19