H-SOURCE ANNOUNCES PARTNERSHIP WITH 100+ HOSPITAL GROUP

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA – February 26, 2016 – H-Source Holdings Ltd. (CSE: HSI; OTCQB: HSCHF) (the "Company" or "H-Source") is pleased to announce that its wholly-owned subsidiary, H-Source, Inc., has entered into an agreement with a group of Midwest hospitals which will begin adding its members to the H-Source's hospital-to-hospital marketplace platform starting today. The group representing over 100 hospitals of varying sizes will significantly increase the amount of inventory and opportunity for buying and selling products on the H-Source platform. A significant benefit to this group of hospitals is the ability for all their members to buy and sell within their group first, then gain access to the larger network for purchases or sales in order to maximize efficiency.

The H-Source marketplace network has been built specifically to support hospitals efforts to reduce losses and promote sustainability.

"We are pleased to announce the new member hospitals in our marketplace network", commented Mr. John Kupice, CEO and Director of H-Source. "Since our commercial release in the late fall last year, we are onboarding new members ahead of schedule. It is a testament to the hard work of our team and the value our network delivers reducing hospital operating costs and medical waste."

About H-Source Holdings Ltd.

H-Source Holdings Ltd. is a technology company operating within the healthcare industry through its wholly owned subsidiary, H-Source, Inc. The Company has developed a transaction platform that provides a private, secure and trusted marketplace for member hospitals to buy, sell and transfer excess inventory supplies and capital equipment with each other.
