GBLT Corp. Signs €700,000 Order with One of Europe's Largest Retailer for Thermometers

Toronto, Ontario, Canada - Dueren, Germany – December 15, 2020 - GBLT Corp. (TSXV: GBLT I OTCQB: GBLTF I FSE: 4G9) ("GBLT" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that one of Europe's largest retailers has ordered €700,000 of Dr. Senst thermometers to be delivered in January 2021. This is the Company's first order for thermometers with this major retailer and is a new product line in GBLT's previously announced expansion into PPE solutions. GBLT is a listed supplier for this major European retailer and this is now the second product that they are delivering with the first being masks.

This initial order of GBLT's themometers will be placed in stores across one European nation and online distribution of this major retailer. Upon delivery of this order by end of January, the Company expects follow-on orders for additional European countries with this retailer.

"Our unparalleled supply-chain network allows us to offer a host of PPE solutions beyond simply just masks, all of which fall under the Dr. Senst brand," said Dr. Thilo Senst, CEO of GBLT. "After proving ourselves as a trusted vendor to this major European retailer, we have been able to expand our product offering with them to now offer thermometers. This is a logical next step for GBLT after introducing masks and our previously announced brand of disinfectant solutions and believe this has the potential to be a significant product offering going forward."

Dr. Senst continued, "Over the years, we have established credibile relationships with some of Europe's largest retailers and being recognized as a trusted parter, hence the reason we continue to receive contracts of this scale . As we move into 2021, we are seeing high levels of demand for our PPE products and believe this will remain a lucrative component to our business throughout the new year."
