Resolution 6 seeks the authority to allot ordinary shares for a period expiring at the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting. The £50,500 nominal amount of shares to which this authority will relate, after allowing for ordinary shares arising on the exercise of share options, represents approximately 33% of the nominal amount of the issued ordinary share capital of the Company at 27 June 2012, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this notice. The £7,570 nominal amount of equity securities to which this authority relates represents approximately five per cent of the nominal amount of the issued ordinary share capital of the Company at 27 June 2012, the latest practicable date prior to publication of this notice. The Directors believe that this resolution will mean that they can take advantage of advantageous business opportunities as they arise. The Directors have no present intention of exercising this authority. The authority will expire at the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting and it is the current intention to renew this authority annually.

Resolution 8 – Notice of General Meetings

The Companies Act 2006 enables listed companies to call a general meeting (other than an Annual General Meeting) on 14 clear days' notice. The EU Shareholder Rights Directive requires listed companies to call such general meetings on at least 21 clear days' notice unless shareholders have previously approved the calling of general meetings at shorter notice. The Company wishes to retain the option of calling general meetings on 14 clear days' notice. Resolution 8 seeks such approval. The approval will be effective up to the next Annual General Meeting and it is our intention to renew the authority at each Annual General Meeting.
