Plurilock Announces New Critical Services Contracts Totaling CAD$1.13 Million

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - May 13, 2026) - Plurilock Security Inc. (TSXV: PLUR) (OTCQB: PLCKF) ("Plurilock" or the "Company"), a global cybersecurity services provider, announces multiple new Critical Services contracts totaling CAD$1.13 million with customers in the semiconductor manufacturing, consumer storage, and mining sectors.

Four new contracts are with a major global semiconductor manufacturer, extending and expanding a longstanding relationship. The engagements include security change management support, AI security operations support, security operations center (SOC) engineering and support services, and security assessment work.

Plurilock will also provide onsite engineering services for a national consumer storage company to support a data center modernization initiative, including assembly, installation, configuration, and integration of advanced compute and storage systems.

Plurilock will also deliver firewall security and automation services for a Canadian mining company through one of its Canadian alliance partners.

As with prior contracts, Plurilock expects fulfillment costs and gross margin profiles to remain consistent with historical performance as disclosed in its latest MD&A. Further details with respect to the terms of the contract are subject to confidentiality and non-disclosure.
