Schedule "A"	-	Subscription Agreement
Schedule "B"		Financial Statements of the Issuer

GENERAL

This Offering Memorandum constitutes an offering of the Common Shares only in those jurisdictions where they may be lawfully offered for sale and may be sold only by persons permitted to sell the Common Shares and only to those persons to whom they may be lawfully offered for sale. No securities commission or similar regulatory authority has passed on the merits of the Common Shares nor has it reviewed this Offering Memorandum and any representation to the contrary is an offence. No prospectus has been filed with any such authority in connection with the Common Shares.

This Offering Memorandum is confidential. The information contained in this Offering Memorandum is intended only for the persons to whom it is transmitted for the purposes of evaluating the securities offered hereby. By accepting a copy of this Offering Memorandum, the recipient agrees that neither it, nor any of its representatives or agents, shall use the Offering Memorandum or the information contained herein for any other purpose, or divulge it to any other party and shall return all copies of the Offering Memorandum to the Issuer promptly upon request.

The information contained in this Offering Memorandum is intended only for the persons to whom it is transmitted for the purposes of evaluating the securities offered hereby. Prospective investors should rely only on the information in this Offering Memorandum, including the information incorporated herein by reference, if any. No persons are authorized to give any information or make any representation in respect of the Issuer or the securities offered herein and any such information or representation must not be relied upon. Any marketing materials related to a distribution under this Offering Memorandum and delivered or made reasonably available to a prospective subscriber before the termination of the distribution (collectively, the "OM Marketing Materials"), are hereby specifically incorporated by reference in this Offering Memorandum, and further any OM Marketing Materials shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in this Offering Memorandum.

This Offering is a private placement and is not, and under no circumstances is to be construed as, a public offering of the securities described herein. The securities are being offered in reliance upon exemptions from the registration and prospectus requirements set forth in Applicable Securities Laws.

The Common Shares offered hereunder will be subject to a number of resale restrictions, including a restriction on trading. Until the restriction on trading expires, if ever, a Shareholder will not be able to trade the Common Shares unless it complies with very limited exemptions from the prospectus and registration requirements under Applicable Securities Laws. As the Issuer has no intention of becoming a reporting issuer in any jurisdiction in Canada, these trading restrictions will not expire. Consequently, Shareholders may not be able to liquidate their Common Shares in a timely manner, if at all, or pledge their Common Shares as collateral for loans. See "ITEM 9 – Resale Restrictions".

The Common Shares have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "U.S. Securities Act"), or any applicable state securities laws. Accordingly, except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and state securities laws, the Common Shares may not be offered or sold within the U.S. or to, or for the account or benefit of, "U.S. persons" (as such term is defined in Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act) unless registered under the U.S. Securities Act and applicable state securities laws or an exemption from such registration is available.

INTERPRETATION

Words importing the singular number only include the plural and vice versa, and words importing the masculine, feminine or neuter gender include the other genders.

RISK FACTORS

There are also numerous risks involved in the investment in the Common Shares. Potential investors should review these risks before investing in the Common Shares. See "ITEM 7 – Risk Factors".

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this Offering Memorandum as they relate to the Issuer and its respective views or predictions about possible future events or conditions and their business operations and strategy constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of that phrase under Applicable Securities Laws. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. The use of any of the words "anticipate", "does not anticipate", "continue", "estimate", "expect", "is not expected", "may", "could", "might", "will", "project", "should", "believe", "does not believe", "budget", "plan", "forecast", "potential", "intend" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements in this Offering Memorandum include, among others, statements regarding the intended use of proceeds of the Offering and the anticipated activities of the Issuer; the business, operation and other costs to be incurred in the operation and management of the business and the material agreements to be entered into and their terms. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results or events to differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements. Various assumptions or factors are typically applied in drawing conclusions or making the forecasts or projections set out in forward-looking information, if any. Those assumptions and factors are based on information currently available to the Issuer including information obtained from third party sources. Although the Issuer believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable and represent the Issuer's expectations and belief at this time, such statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties which may cause the Issuer's actual performance and results in future periods to differ materially from any estimates or projections of future performance or results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from expectations include, among other things, general economic and market factors, ability to raise financing and fund capital expenditures and changes in government regulations, in addition to those factors specifically discussed or referenced in "ITEM 7 - Risk Factors". These factors should not be considered exhaustive. Many of these risk factors are beyond the Issuer's control and each contributes to the possibility that the forward-looking statements will not occur, or that actual results, performance or achievements may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. The impact of any one risk, uncertainty or factor on a particular forward-looking statement is not determinable with certainty as these risks, uncertainties and factors are interdependent and management's future course of action depends upon the Issuer's assessment of all information available at that time.

The forward-looking statements made herein relate only to events or information as of the date of this Offering Memorandum and are expressly qualified by this cautionary statement. Except as required by law, the Issuer undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, after the date on which the statements are made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

ITEM 2- BUSINESS OF THE ISSUER

2.1 Structure

The Issuer

The Issuer was incorporated on August 30, 2018 for the sole purpose of reviewing opportunities to enter into transactions (a "Transaction") with other entities that result in the post-transaction entity being a public issuer on a recognized Canadian stock exchange. The Issuer anticipates that its primary role in a Transaction will be to provide support to the post-transaction entity in meeting its minimum listing requirements for a Canadian stock exchange that the post-Transaction entity makes application to list its securities for trading ("Minimum Listing Support"). The minimum listing requirements that the Issuer may provide support in relation to could include: 1) providing supplemental working capital, and/or 2) providing qualified management and/or members for the board of directors, and/or 3) providing additional shareholders.

This is not a typical investment as the Issuer is not pursuing business objectives other than the identification and entering into a Transaction. The Issuer does not intend to pursue or engage in stand-alone business initiatives. Other than pursuing a Transaction there are no other intended business opportunities for the Corporation. See "ITEM 2.3 – Development of the Business".

2.2 Our Business

The Issuer intends to focus all of its corporate efforts on identifying and completing a Transaction. The Issuer intends to enter into a Transaction that affords its shareholders value for the Minimum Listing Support and potential value derived from the estimated business growth of the post-Transaction entity.

2.3 Development of Business

The Issuer is a newly formed corporation. The Issuer has no operating history and was established solely to pursue a Transaction. It is the intention of the Issuer to raise funds under this Offering to pursue a Transaction. See "ITEM 2.2 - Our Business".]

2.4 Long Term Objectives

The Issuer's only long term objective is to identify and enter into a Transaction. Management of the Corporation anticipates this could take up to 18 months to meet this objective and could cost up to $50,000 to identify and conclude a Transaction. There is no guarantee that the Issuer shall complete a Transaction.

2.5 Short Term Objectives and How We Intend to Achieve Them

The Issuer's objectives for the next 12 months are to pursue the identification of a Transaction. See "ITEM 2.2 - Our Business".

The following outlines the costs associated with the achievement of the Issuer's short-term objectives:

What we must do and how we will do it.	Target completion date or number of months to complete	Our cost to complete
Completion of private financing.	1 month	$15,000
Identify and negotiate the closing of a Transaction	3 months	$50,000

2.6 Insufficient Funds

The proceeds of this Offering may not be sufficient to accomplish all of the Issuer's proposed objectives and there is no assurance that alternative financing will be available or, if available, may be obtained by the Issuer on reasonable terms.

2.7 Material Agreements

The Corporation does not have any paid employees nor does it foresee any need for any in the near term. The directors/officers of the Corporation are not being compensated (other than to reimburse them for any reasonable expenses incurred).

To date, the Issuer has not entered into any agreements which can reasonably be regarded as presently being material to the Issuer or a prospective Subscriber of Common Shares.

Management Agreement:

The Corporation does not maintain any agreements with its management and has no employees.

ITEM 5 - SECURITIES OFFERED

5.1 Terms of Securities

General

The Offering consists of a Minimum Offering of 500,000 Class A Common Shares ($50,000) and a Maximum Offering of 3,000,000 Class A Common Shares ($300,000) at a price of $0.10 per Common Share and is offered pursuant to exemptions from the registration and prospectus requirements of applicable securities laws to purchasers resident in the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario (the "Offering Jurisdictions").

It is expected that the first Closing of the Offering of Common Shares will take place on or about October 15, 2018 (the "Initial Closing Date"). If more than the minimum number of Common Shares but less than the maximum number of Common Shares are issued on the Initial Closing Date, additional Common Shares may be offered (up to the maximum) and additional Closings may take place after the Initial Closing Date. The last additional Closing is expected to occur on or about October 26, 2018. Such additional Closings are conditional upon the Corporation issuing a minimum of 500,000 Common Shares on the Initial Closing Date. It is expected that certificates evidencing the Common Shares will be available for delivery immediately following the payment.

In accordance with an engagement agreement dated September 7, 2018, Chippingham Financial Group Limited (the "Agent") will be entitled, upon closing of the Offering, to receive the Agent's Fee, being a payment in the amount of 10% of the gross proceeds of the Offering and purchase warrants in the amount of 10% of the number of Common Shares sold under the Offering. The Agents Warrants will be exercisable into Common Shares upon payment of $0.10 per Common Share for a period of 2 years from the date of issue.

The Subscription Agreement contains representations and warranties of the Subscriber that the Issuer will be relying upon in order to determine the eligibility of the Subscriber. The Subscriber must read the Subscription Agreement in full prior to execution of the Subscription Agreement, and is hereby advised to obtain independent tax and legal advice.

This Offering is being made pursuant to exemptions from registration and prospectus requirements contained in the securities regulations in the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario. The Issuer is not currently a reporting issuer in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba or Ontario or in any other province; therefore resale restrictions in those jurisdictions may never end.

If closing does not occur for any subscriptions for at least the Minimum Offering, subscription monies will be returned to the Subscribers without interest, deduction or penalty. It is expected that the closing of the Offering contemplated by this Offering Memorandum may occur through one or more closings, the first of which will occur on or about October 15, 2018, or such other date(s) as may be determined by the Issuer. Thereafter, subsequent closings may occur from time to time at the discretion of the Issuer as subscriptions are received and accepted by the Issuer, until the earlier of either the date upon which the Maximum Offering is achieved or such other date as determined by the Issuer.

5.2 Subscription Procedure

Subscription Documents

Subscribers who wish to purchase Common Shares will be required to enter into a Subscription Agreement with the Issuer by completing and delivering the Subscription Agreement and related documentation to the Issuer. The Subscription Agreement contains, among other things, representations and warranties required to be made by the Subscriber that it is duly authorized to purchase the Common Shares, that it is purchasing the Common Shares for investment and not with a view for resale and as to its corporate status or other qualifications to purchase Common Shares on a "private placement" basis. Reference is made to the Subscription Agreement and related documentation, a copy of which is attached hereto as Schedule "A", for the specific terms of these representations, warranties and conditions.

Common Shares may be purchased in the following manner:

- (i) by the execution of the Subscription Agreement, as well as any documentation required by the Securities Regulatory Authorities of the jurisdiction in which they are resident (copies of which are attached to the Subscription Agreement);
- (ii) deliver to the Issuer the Subscription Price in respect of the Common Shares subscribed for by way of a certified cheque or bank draft payable to the Issuer or in such other manner as is acceptable to the Issuer; and
- (iii) deliver all of the foregoing to the Issuer in accordance with the instructions set out in the Subscription Agreement.

The first closing of this Offering is expected to occur on or about the Closing. Other closings will occur subsequent to that date.

All Subscription Proceeds will be held in trust until midnight on the second Business Day after the day the Subscriber signs the Subscription Agreement. In the event that such Subscriber provides the Issuer with a cancellation notice prior to midnight of the second Business Day after the signing date, or the Issuer does not accept such Subscriber's subscription, all Subscription Proceeds will be promptly returned to such Subscriber without interest or deduction.

You should carefully review the terms of the Subscription Agreement attached hereto for more detailed information concerning the rights and obligations applicable to you and the Issuer. Execution and delivery of the Subscription Agreement will bind you to the terms thereof, whether executed by you or by an agent on your behalf. You should consult with your own professional advisors.

Exemptions from Prospectus Requirements

Canada

The Common Shares are being offered in the Selling Jurisdictions pursuant to exemptions under Applicable Securities Laws. Such exemptions relieve the Issuer from provisions under Applicable Securities Laws requiring the Issuer to file a prospectus and, therefore, Subscribers do not receive the benefits associated with a subscription for securities issued pursuant to a filed prospectus, including the review of material by a Securities Regulatory Authority or similar authority.

The sale of Common Shares pursuant to this Offering Memorandum is being made in the Selling Jurisdictions under certain statutory exemptions from the prospectus requirements set out in National Instrument 45-106 – Prospectus and Registration Exemptions ("NI 45-106"). Specifically, the sale of Common Shares is being made pursuant to Section 2.9 of NI 45-106 (the "Offering Memorandum Exemption"), Section 2.3 of NI 45-106 and Section 73.3 of the Securities Act (Ontario) (the "Accredited Investor Exemption") and Section 2.10 of NI 45-106 (the "Minimum Investment Exemption"). Please carefully review the accompanying Subscription Agreement to determine the prospectus exemption requirements that apply to you.

Other Jurisdictions

The sale of Common Shares pursuant to this Offering Memorandum may also be made in other jurisdictions provided that the Subscriber provides to the Issuer the full particulars of the exemption from the registration and prospectus requirements under Applicable Securities Laws being relied on and evidence of the Subscriber's qualifications thereunder.

Each Subscriber is urged to consult with their own legal adviser as to the details of the statutory exemption being relied upon and the consequences of purchasing securities pursuant to such exemption.

ITEM 6 - INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES AND RRSP ELIGIBILITY

6.1 Tax Advice

You should consult your own professional advisers to obtain advice on the tax consequences that apply to you.

6.2 Eligibility for Investment

The Common Shares are not eligible investments for Exempt Plans. You should consult your own professional advisers to obtain advice on the RRSP eligibility of these securities.

ITEM 7 - RISK FACTORS

Investment in the Common Shares should only be made after consulting with independent and qualified sources of investment and tax advice. Investment in the Common Shares at this time is highly speculative due to the stage of the Issuer's development and the unique business plan of the issuer (not pursuing a stand-alone business, rather, seeking to assist other entities, that have their own business initiatives, to meet the minimum listing requirements of a Canadian Stock exchange) (the "Transaction Objectives"). The only sources of capital for the Corporation are the funds from investors in the Corporation (through the sale of Common Shares). Other than the pursuit of a Transaction Objectives, there are no other business opportunities in the Corporation. Shareholders must rely on the management of the Issuer and its advisors. Any investment in the Issuer at this stage involves a high degree of risk.

In addition to factors set forth elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum, potential Subscribers should carefully consider the following factors, many of which are inherent to the ownership of Common Shares. An investment in the Common Shares of the Issuer involves various risks and uncertainties. The risks discussed in this Offering Memorandum can adversely affect the Issuer's funding and successfully meeting its Transaction Objectives. This could cause the value of the Common Shares to decline (or even become worthless) and cause Shareholders to lose part or all of their investment. In addition to those set out below and elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum, other material risks and uncertainties of which the Issuer is not presently aware may also harm the Issuer's activities. The following is a summary only of the material risk factors involved in an investment in the Common Shares. Prospective Subscribers should review the risks with their legal, investment, tax and financial advisors.

7.1 Investment Risk

Among the risks of investing in the Issuer are the following:

- (a) Not a Typical Investment - This is not a typical investment. The Issuer does not intend to pursue its own stand-alone business initiatives. The value of the Common Shares could decline (or even become worthless) and cause Shareholders to lose part or all of their investment.
- (b) No Guaranteed Return - There is no guarantee that the Common Shares will hold their current value (in fact the Common Shares could become worthless if the Corporation is not successful in concluding a Transaction or ever earn any positive return in the short or long-term. The Issuer does not intend to make cash distributions to Shareholders. All prospective Subscribers should consider an investment in the Issuer within the overall context of their investment goals and risk tolerances.
- (c) Highly Speculative - The purchase of Common Shares is highly speculative. A potential Subscriber should purchase Common Shares only if it is able to bear the risk of the entire loss of its investment. An investment in the Common Shares should not constitute a significant portion of a Subscriber's investment portfolio. Potential Subscribers should review closely this Offering Memorandum to familiarize themselves with the risks associated with an investment in the Issuer. Each prospective Subscriber is responsible for determining if an investment in the Issuer of the size contemplated by the prospective Subscriber is appropriate for that prospective Subscriber. There is no assurance that the Issuer will be able to achieve the Transaction Objectives.
- (d) Investment Not Liquid - The Common Shares will be subject to a number of resale restrictions, including a restriction on trading. A Shareholder will not be able to trade or transfer the Common Shares unless it complies with very limited exemptions from the prospectus and registration requirements under Applicable Securities Laws. As the Issuer has no intention of becoming a reporting issuer in any jurisdiction in Canada, these restrictions in trading will not expire. There is no market over which the Common Shares may be traded and it is very unlikely that one will develop. Consequently, Shareholders may not be able to liquidate their Common Shares in a timely manner, if at all, or pledge their Common Shares as collateral for loans. An investment in Common Shares is hence suitable only for investors who do not need liquidity with respect to this investment. (See ITEM 9— Resale Restrictions).
- (e) Loss of Investment - An investment in Common Shares is appropriate only for investors who have the capacity to absorb a complete loss of all of their investment. The Issuer is not a member institution of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Common Shares offered pursuant to this Offering Memorandum are not insured against loss through the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation.
- (f) Regulatory Review - This Offering Memorandum constitutes an offering of the securities described herein only in those jurisdictions and to those Persons where and to whom they may be lawfully offered for sale and is not, and under no circumstances is to be construed as a public offering, prospectus or an advertisement of securities. Subscribers will not have the benefit of a review of the material by any regulatory authority.
- (g) Offering - There can be no assurance regarding the amount of proceeds that may be obtained under the Offering. If less Common Shares are sold pursuant to this Offering than expected, the Issuer will have fewer funds available to pursue the Transaction Objectives. This could have a material adverse effect on achieving any successful outcomes.

7.2 Issuer Risk

Among the risks of investing in the Issuer are the following:

- (a) Limited Operating History - The Corporation is newly incorporated with no previous operating history. The pursuit of successful outcomes in relation to the Transaction Objectives is reliant on the good faith and expertise of the directors/management team of the Corporation. Investors shall be relying on their discretion and ability and continued involvement. None of the directors or officers of the Corporation are providing services to the Corporation on a full-time basis, but only as, and when, they determine their involvement shall be beneficial to the Corporation.

- (b) Operating Loss - The Issuer Transaction Objectives could result in available funds being expended. The only sources of capital for the Corporation are the funds from investors in the Corporation (through the sale of Common Shares). There are no other business opportunities in the Corporation. Unless the Corporation is successful in raising funds from investors – its financial condition will deteriorate, it will operate at a loss and it may be unable to achieve its Transaction Objectives.
- (c) Absence of Cash Dividends - The Issuer has not paid any cash dividends to date on its Common Shares and there are no plans for the Issuer to pay such dividend payments in the future.
- (d) Continuous Disclosure Obligations – The Issuer is not a reporting issuer and does not have any continuous disclosure obligations.
- (e) Lack of Independent Experts Representing Shareholders - The Issuer has consulted with legal counsel regarding the formation and terms of the Issuer and the Offering of Common Shares. The Shareholders have, however, not been independently represented. Therefore, to the extent that the Issuer, the Shareholders or this Offering could benefit by further independent review, such has not occurred. Each prospective Subscriber should consult his or her own legal, tax and financial advisors regarding the desirability of purchasing Common Shares and the suitability of investing in the Issuer.
- (f) No Involvement of Registered Investment Dealers - No independent investment dealer (IIROC registered or exempt market dealer registered) has made any review or investigation of the terms of this Offering or the structure of the Issuer.
- (g) Fees and Expenses - The Issuer is obligated to pay certain management/consulting fees along with legal, accounting, filing and other fees/expenses regardless of whether it realizes profits or is successful in its Focused Objectives.
- (h) Lack of Separate Counsel - The Shareholders, as a group, have not been represented by separate counsel and counsel for the Issuer does not purport to have acted for the Shareholders or to have conducted any investigation or review on their behalf.

7.3 Industry Risk

Among the industry risks are the following:

- (a) Changes in Legislation - There can be no assurance that the applicable laws, or other legislation, legal and statutory rights will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects the Issuer. There can be no assurance that income tax, securities, and other laws or the interpretation and application of such laws by courts and governmental authorities will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects the Issuer.

The foregoing risk factors do not purport to be a complete explanation of all risks involved in purchasing Common Shares described herein. Potential Subscribers should read this entire Offering Memorandum and the attached Subscription Agreement carefully and consult with their legal and other professional advisors before determining to invest in Common Shares of the Issuer.

ITEM 8 - REPORTING OBLIGATIONS

8.1 Reporting

The Issuer is not subject to continuous reporting and disclosure obligations which the securities legislation in any province would require of a "reporting issuer" as defined in such legislation and there is, therefore, no requirement that the Issuer make disclosure of its affairs, including, without limitation, the prompt notification of material changes by way of press releases and formal filings or the preparation of quarterly unaudited financial statements and annual audited financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Issuer will send or make available to all Shareholders, the financial statements of the Issuer together with comparative financial statements for the preceding fiscal year, if any, and the report of the accountant thereon, within 120 days of the end of the fiscal year of the Issuer.

Pursuant to the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), the Corporation is required to:

- Call/organize an annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation no later than 18 months after the incorporation and subsequently not later than 15 months after holding the last preceding annual meeting. The Corporation is required to prepare and deliver to each shareholder an information circular in the prescribed form and detailing the required information and disclosure as prescribed by law in connection with such annual meeting; and

- place before the shareholders at every annual meeting annual financial statements as required by law.

ITEM 9 - RESALE RESTRICTIONS

9.1 General Statement

The Common Shares will be subject to a number of resale restrictions, including a restriction on trading. Until the restriction on trading expires, you will not be able to trade the securities unless you comply with an exemption from the prospectus and registration requirements under Applicable Securities Laws.

The Issuer is not: (i) a reporting issuer in any Canadian province or territory, nor (ii) a SEDAR filer in any Canadian province or territory. As a result, the Common Shares will be subject to an indefinite hold period.

Common Shares are not transferable without prior written consent of the board of directors of the Issuer. Such consent may be withheld by the board of directors of the Issuer at its discretion, and in any case will be withheld if such a transfer is not permitted by Applicable Securities Laws. The Issuer will be entitled to require and may require, as a condition of allowing any transfer of any Common Share, the transferor or transferee, at their expense, to furnish to the Issuer evidence satisfactory to it in form and substance (which may include an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Issuer) in order to establish that such transfer will not constitute a violation of the securities laws of any jurisdiction whose securities laws are applicable thereto.

9.2 Restricted Period

For trades in Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Ontario:

Unless permitted under securities legislation, you cannot trade the securities before the date that is four months and a day after the date the Issuer becomes a reporting issuer in any province or territory of Canada.

The Issuer will not become a reporting issuer upon completion of this Offering and does not currently anticipate ever becoming a reporting issuer other than as part of a Transaction. The resale restriction on the securities may therefore never expire.

For trades in Manitoba:

Unless permitted under securities legislation, you must not trade the securities without the prior written consent of the regulator in Manitoba unless:

- (a) the Issuer has filed a prospectus with the regulator in Manitoba with respect to the securities you have purchased and the regulator in Manitoba has issued a receipt for the prospectus; or
- (b) you have held the securities for at least 12 months.

The regulator in Manitoba will consent to your trade if the regulator is of the opinion that to do so is not prejudicial to the public interest.

The foregoing is a summary of resale restrictions relevant to Subscribers of Common Shares offered hereby. The foregoing is not intended to be exhaustive and all Subscribers under this Offering should consult with their own professional advisers with respect to restriction on the transferability, resale and availability of further exemptions relating to the Common Shares offered hereunder.

ITEM 10 - PURCHASER'S RIGHTS

If you purchase these securities, you will have certain rights, some of which are described below. For more information about your rights, you should consult a lawyer.

The securities laws in your jurisdiction may provide you with the right, in certain circumstances, to seek damages or to cancel your agreement to buy Common Shares. Most often, these rights are available if the Issuer makes a misrepresentation in this Offering Memorandum or any amendment hereto, but in some jurisdictions, you may have these rights in other circumstances including if the Issuer fails to deliver the Offering Memorandum to you within the required time or if the Issuer makes a misrepresentation in any advertisements or literature regarding Common Shares. Generally, a "misrepresentation" means an untrue statement about a material fact or the failure to disclose a material fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary in order to make a statement not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made. The meaning of misrepresentation may differ slightly depending on the law in your jurisdiction. In most jurisdictions there are defenses available to the persons or companies that you may have a right to sue. In particular, in many jurisdictions, the person or company that you sue will not be liable if you knew of the misrepresentation when you purchased the Common Shares.

The following summaries are subject to any express provisions of the securities legislation of each Selling Jurisdiction and the regulations, rules and policy statements thereunder and reference is made thereto for the complete text of such provisions.

The rights of action described herein are in addition to and without derogation from any other right or remedy that a Subscriber may have at law.

10.1 Two Day Cancellation Right

You can cancel your agreement to purchase these securities. To do so, you must send a notice to the Issuer by midnight on the second Business Day after you sign the Subscription Agreement to buy Common Shares.

10.2 Statutory Rights of Action in the Event of a Misrepresentation

Subscribers in British Columbia, Alberta and Manitoba

If there is a misrepresentation in this Offering Memorandum, you have a statutory right to sue:

- (1) the Issuer to cancel your agreement to buy the Common Shares; or
- (2) for damages against:
 - a) if you are resident in Alberta or Manitoba:
 - i) the Issuer;
 - ii) every director of the Issuer at the date of this Offering Memorandum; and
 - iii) every person or company who signed this Offering Memorandum; and
 - b) if you are resident in British Columbia:
 - i) the Issuer;
 - ii) every director of the Issuer at the date of this Offering Memorandum; and
 - iii) every person who signed this Offering Memorandum.

This statutory right to sue is available to you whether or not you relied on the misrepresentation. However, there are various defenses available to the persons or companies that you have a right to sue. In particular, they have a defense if you knew of the misrepresentation when you purchased the Common Shares.

Time limitations

If you intend to rely on the rights described above in paragraph (1) or (2), you must do so within strict time limitations.

You must commence an action to cancel the agreement within:

- (1) if you are resident in Alberta, 180 days from the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action; and
- (2) if you are resident in British Columbia or Manitoba, 180 days after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action.

You must commence an action for damages within:

- (1) if you are resident in Alberta, the earlier of:
 - a) 180 days from the date that you first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action;
 - or

- b) 3 years from the day of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action.
- (2) if you are resident in British Columbia, the earlier of:
 - a) 180 days after you first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action; or
 - b) 3 years after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action.
- (3) if you are resident in Manitoba, the earlier of:
 - a) 180 days after the date you first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action; or
 - b) 2 years after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action.

Subscribers in Ontario

Section 130.1 of the Securities Act (Ontario) provides that every purchaser of securities pursuant to an offering memorandum (such as this Offering Memorandum) shall have a statutory right of action for damages or rescission against the issuer and any selling security holder in the event that the offering memorandum contains a misrepresentation. A purchaser who purchases securities offered by the offering memorandum during the period of distribution has, without regard to whether the purchaser relied upon the misrepresentation, a right of action for damages or, alternatively, while still the owner of the securities, for rescission against the issuer and any selling security holder provided that:

- (a) if the purchaser exercises its right of rescission, it shall cease to have a right of action for damages as against the issuer and the selling security holders, if any;
- (b) the issuer and the selling security holders, if any, will not be liable if they prove that the purchaser purchased the securities with knowledge of the misrepresentation;
- (c) the issuer and the selling security holders, if any, will not be liable for all or any portion of damages that it proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the securities as a result of the misrepresentation relied upon; and
- (d) in no case shall the amount recoverable exceed the price at which the securities were offered.

Section 138 of the Securities Act (Ontario) provides that no action shall be commenced to enforce these rights more than:

- (a) in the case of an action for rescission, 180 days after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action; or
- (b) in the case of an action for damages, the earlier of: (i) 180 days after the date that the purchaser first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action; or (ii) three years after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action.

Section 132.1 of the Securities Act (Ontario) provides a defence to liability for misrepresentations in respect of forward-looking information if the Issuer proves that: (i) the offering memorandum contains reasonable cautionary language identifying the forward looking information as such, and identifying material factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from a conclusion, forecast or projection in the forward looking information, and a statement of material factors or assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection set out in the forward looking information; and (ii) the Issuer has a reasonable basis for drawing the conclusion or making the forecasts and projections set out in the forward looking information.

Subscribers in Saskatchewan

Section 138 of The Securities Act, 1988 (Saskatchewan), as amended (the "Saskatchewan Act") provides that where an offering memorandum (such as this Offering Memorandum) or any amendment to it is sent or delivered to a purchaser and it contains a misrepresentation (as defined in the Saskatchewan Act), a purchaser who purchases a security covered by the offering memorandum or any amendment to it is deemed to have relied upon that misrepresentation, if it was a misrepresentation at the time of purchase, and has a right of action for rescission against the issuer or a selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made or has a right of action for damages against:

- (a) the issuer or a selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made;

- (b) every promoter and director of the issuer or the selling security holder, as the case may be, at the time the offering memorandum or any amendment to it was sent or delivered;
- (c) every person or company whose consent has been filed respecting the offering, but only with respect to reports, opinions or statements that have been made by them;
- (d) every person who or company that, in addition to the persons or companies mentioned in (a) to (c) above, signed the offering memorandum or the amendment to the offering memorandum; and
- (e) every person who or company that sells securities on behalf of the issuer or selling security holder under the offering memorandum or amendment to the offering memorandum.

Such rights of rescission and damages are subject to certain limitations including the following:

- (a) if the purchaser elects to exercise its right of rescission against the issuer or selling security holder, it shall have no right of action for damages against that party;
- (b) in an action for damages, a defendant will not be liable for all or any portion of the damages that he, she or it proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the securities resulting from the misrepresentation relied on;
- (c) no person or company, other than the issuer or a selling security holder, will be liable for any part of the offering memorandum or any amendment to it not purporting to be made on the authority of an expert and not purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, a report, opinion or statement of an expert, unless the person or company failed to conduct a reasonable investigation sufficient to provide reasonable grounds for a belief that there had been no misrepresentation or believed that there had been a misrepresentation;
- (d) in no case shall the amount recoverable exceed the price at which the securities were offered; and
- (e) no person or company is liable in an action for rescission or damages if that person or company proves that the purchaser purchased the securities with knowledge of the misrepresentation.

In addition, no person or company, other than the issuer or selling security holder, will be liable if the person or company proves that:

- (a) the offering memorandum or any amendment to it was sent or delivered without the person's or company's knowledge or consent and that, on becoming aware of it being sent or delivered, that person or company gave reasonable general notice that it was so sent or delivered; or
- (b) with respect to any part of the offering memorandum or any amendment to it purporting to be made on the authority of an expert, or purporting to be a copy of, or an extract from, a report, an opinion or a statement of an expert, that person or company had no reasonable grounds to believe and did not believe that there had been a misrepresentation, the part of the offering memorandum or any amendment to it did not fairly represent the report, opinion or statement of the expert, or was not a fair copy of, or an extract from, the report, opinion or statement of the expert.

Not all defenses upon which the Issuer or others may rely are described herein. Please refer to the full text of the Saskatchewan Act for a complete listing.

Similar rights of action for damages and rescission are provided in section 138.1 of the Saskatchewan Act in respect of a misrepresentation in advertising and sales literature disseminated in connection with an offering of securities.

Section 138.2 of the Saskatchewan Act also provides that where an individual makes a verbal statement to a prospective purchaser that contains a misrepresentation relating to the security purchased and the verbal statement is made either before or contemporaneously with the purchase of the security, the purchaser is deemed to have relied on the misrepresentation, if it was a misrepresentation at the time of purchase, and has a right of action for damages against the individual who made the verbal statement.

Section 139.1 of the Saskatchewan Act provides a defence to liability for misrepresentations in respect of forward-looking information if the Issuer proves that: (i) the document containing the forward-looking information contains reasonable cautionary language identifying the forward looking information as such, and identifying material factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from a conclusion, forecast or projection in the forward looking information, and a statement of material factors or assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection set out in the forward looking information; and (ii) the Issuer has a reasonable basis for drawing the conclusion or making the forecasts and projections set out in the forward looking information.

Section 141(1) of the Saskatchewan Act provides a purchaser with the right to void the purchase agreement and to recover all money and other consideration paid by the purchaser for the securities if the securities are sold in contravention of the Saskatchewan Act, the regulations to the Saskatchewan Act or a decision of the Saskatchewan Financial Services Commission.

Section 141(2) of the Saskatchewan Act also provides a right of action for rescission or damages to a purchaser of securities to whom an offering memorandum or any amendment to it was not sent or delivered prior to or at the same time as the purchaser enters into an agreement to purchase the securities, as required by Section 80.1 of the Saskatchewan Act.

Section 147 of the Saskatchewan Act provides that no action shall be commenced to enforce any of the foregoing rights more than:

- (a) in the case of an action for rescission, 180 days after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action; or
- (b) in the case of any other action, other than an action for rescission, the earlier of: (i) one year after the plaintiff first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action; or (ii) six years after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action.

The Saskatchewan Act also provides a purchaser who has received an amended offering memorandum delivered in accordance with subsection 80.1(3) of the Saskatchewan Act has a right to withdraw from the agreement to purchase the securities by delivering a notice to the person who or company that is selling the securities, indicating the purchaser's intention not to be bound by the purchase agreement, provided such notice is delivered by the purchaser within two business days of receiving the amended offering memorandum.

There are restrictions on your ability to resell exempt market securities. Exempt market securities are more risky than other securities.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

1. NATURE AND CONTINUANCE OF OPERATIONS

CBD Global Sciences Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) on August 30, 2018. The registered office of the Company is located at 1250-639 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, Canada T2P 0M9. The Company does not have any subsidiaries.

The Company was incorporated for the sole purpose of reviewing opportunities to enter into transactions (a "Transaction") with other entities that result in the post-transaction entity being a public issuer on a recognized Canadian stock exchange. The Issuer anticipates that its primary role in a Transaction will be to provide support to the post-transaction entity in meeting its minimum listing requirements for a Canadian stock exchange that the post-Transaction entity makes application to list its securities for trading.

These financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue on a going-concern basis. The Company has incurred losses since inception and the ability of the Company to continue as a going-concern depends upon its ability to develop profitable operations and to continue to raise adequate financing. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or that such financing will be on terms advantageous to the Company. These financial statements do not reflect the adjustments to the carrying value of assets and liabilities, or the impact on the statement of loss and comprehensive loss and financial position classifications that would be necessary were the going concern assumption not be appropriate.

As at August 31, 2018, the Company has a cumulative deficit of $2,039 and a working capital surplus of $27,961. There can be no assurance that a viable business opportunity that can be adequately financed will be identified and available to the Company. Additional equity and/or debt financing is subject to the global financial markets and prevailing economic conditions, which have recently been volatile and distressed. These factors will likely make it more challenging to obtain financing for the Company going forward. These matters and conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

These financial statements were authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company on October 9, 2018.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Statement of Compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as published by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC").

Basis of Measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for financial instruments measured at their fair value. The financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars, which is also the Company's functional currency. In addition, the financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting except for cash flow information.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION (continued)

Critical Accounting Estimates, Judgments and Assumptions

When preparing the financial statements, management undertakes a number of judgments, estimates and assumptions about recognition and measurement of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The actual results are likely to differ from the judgments, estimates and assumptions made by management, and will seldom equal the estimated results. Information about the significant judgments, estimates and assumptions that have the most significant effect on the recognition and measurement of assets, liabilities, income and expenses are discussed below. Significant judgments used in the preparation of these financial statements include, but are not limited to those relating to the assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Significant estimates used in the preparation of these financial statements include the measurement of deferred tax assets and liabilities.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash

Cash includes highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

Impairment of tangible and intangible assets

At the end of each reporting period, the Company's assets are reviewed to determine whether there is any indication that those assets may be impaired. If such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment, if any. The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. Fair value is determined as the amount that would be obtained from the sale of the asset in an arm's length transaction between knowledgeable and willing parties. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. If the recoverable amount of an asset is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount and the impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss for the period. For an asset that does not generate largely independent cash flows, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but to an amount that does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

Financial instruments

Financial assets

On initial recognition, financial assets are recognized at fair value and are subsequently classified and measured at: (i) amortized cost; (ii) fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI"); or (iii) fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"). The classification of financial assets is generally based on the business model in which a financial asset is managed and its contractual cash flow characteristics. A financial asset is measured at fair value net of transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition except for financial assets at FVTPL where transaction costs are expensed. All financial assets not classified and measured at amortized cost or FVOCI, are measured at FVTPL. On initial recognition of an equity instrument that is not held for trading, the Company may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in the investment's fair value in other comprehensive income.

The classification determines the method by which the financial assets are carried on the statement of financial position subsequent to inception and how changes in value are recorded. Due from related party is classified at amortized cost with subsequent impairments recognized in profit or loss.

Impairment

An 'expected credit loss' impairment model applies which requires a loss allowance to be recognized based on expected credit losses. The estimated present value of future cash flows associated with the asset is determined and an impairment loss is recognized for the difference between this amount and the carrying amount as follows: the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to estimated present value of the future cash flows associated with the asset, discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate, either directly or through the use of an allowance account and the resulting loss is recognized in profit or loss for the period.

In a subsequent period, if the amount of the impairment loss related to financial assets measured at amortized cost decreases, the previously recognized impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the investment at the date the impairment is reversed does not exceed what the amortized cost would have been had the impairment not been recognized.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are designated as either: (i) FVTPL; or (ii) other financial liabilities. All financial liabilities are classified and subsequently measured at amortized cost except for financial liabilities at FVTPL. The classification determines the method by which the financial liabilities are carried on the statement of financial position subsequent to inception and how changes in value are recorded. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities is classified as other financial liabilities and carried on the statement of financial position at amortized cost.

Share-based payment transactions

The Company grants stock options to acquire common shares of the Company to directors, officers, employees and consultants. An individual is classified as an employee when the individual is an employee for legal or tax purposes, or provides services similar to those performed by an employee.

Stock options granted to directors, officers and employees are measured at their fair values determined on their grant date using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. They are recognized as an expense over the vesting periods of the options using the graded vesting model. Options granted to consultants or other non-insiders are measured at the fair value of goods or services received from these parties, or at their Black-Scholes fair values if the fair value of goods or services received cannot be measured. A corresponding increase is recorded to share-based payment reserves for share-based compensation recorded.

When stock options are exercised, the cash proceeds along with the amount previously recorded as share-based payment reserves are recorded as share capital.

Income taxes

Income tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax expense is recognized in profit or loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in equity, in which case it is recognized in equity.

CBD Global Sciences Inc.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the period ended August 31, 2018

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is recognized by providing for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax is not recognized on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination. In addition, deferred tax is not recognized for taxable temporary differences arising on the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realized simultaneously.

A deferred tax asset is recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary difference can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

Foreign currency translation

The functional currency of an entity is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates. The functional currency of the Company is the Canadian dollar. The functional currency determinations were conducted through an analysis of the consideration factors identified in IAS 21, The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates.

Loss per share

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net earnings (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the reporting period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed similar to basic earnings (loss) per share except that the weighted average shares outstanding are increased to include additional shares for the assumed exercise of stock options and warrants, if dilutive. The number of additional shares is calculated by assuming that outstanding stock options and warrants were exercised and that the proceeds from such exercises were used to acquire common stock at the average market price during the reporting periods.

Recent accounting pronouncements issued but not yet effective

Effective January 1, 2019, the Company will adopt the following accounting standards:

IFRS 16, Leases ("IFRS 16")

In January 2016, the IASB issued IFRS 16, Leases, which will replace IAS 17, Leases. This standard introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than twelve months, unless the underlying asset is of low value. A lessee is required to recognize a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments. The standard will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019. The Company has determined that adopting IFRS 16 will not have a material impact on its financial statements.
