

Komo Plant Based Foods Inc. Establishes US Cold Storage Partnership

Vancouver, B.C. – May 5, 2022: Komo Plant Based Foods Inc. (CSE: YUM) (OTCQB: KOMOF) (FRA:9HB) (“Komo”), a premium plant-based food company, is pleased to announce it will be partnering with HLC Distributing as a third-party logistics (3PL) Warehouse for the U.S.

“We are thrilled to work with Komo foods as they look to expand into the US market. They’re an innovative company that understands the plant-based segment,” said Alec Hendren, Vice President of HLC Distributing (HLC). “As a cold storage and logistics provider, we are excited to help provide the resources needed to get great products out into the market. It’s the right fit for both companies and I look forward to building the relationship as we both grow.”

Komo’s plans for entering the U.S. is to focus regionally in the West Coast, specifically the Pacific Northwest, North Pacific and south California regions with a data driven approach to expanding where there is strong consumer demand for wholesome, plant-based products. Komo’s plant-based, ready-to-bake Lasagna was recently recognized by VegNews as a “Best New Vegan Product” winner at the 2022 Natural Products Expo West.

“Building on the excitement and interest we received from Expo West, partnering with HLC is the next step for our expansion into the U.S. Market and building out our distribution network.” says Komo Comfort Foods President, Jeffrey Ma.
