Boba Mint Holdings Ltd. (TNJ) Announces Launch of Amino Pro Premium Subscription for Amino AI

August 10, 2026 - TORONTO, ON – Boba Mint Holdings Ltd. ("Boba Mint" or the "Company") (CSE: TNJ) is pleased to announce the launch of Amino Pro, the premium subscription offering for its AI-powered nutrition platform, Amino AI.

The launch marks an important milestone in the Company's commercialization strategy by introducing a recurring subscription revenue model while maintaining a robust free experience for its growing community. Revenue generated through Amino Pro is expected to support continued investment in artificial intelligence, new product development, and additional features across the Amino platform.

Since its launch, Amino AI has grown into one of the leading AI-powered nutrition applications, helping users make healthier decisions through fast, intelligent meal recognition and personalized nutrition insights.

Today, the platform has achieved several key milestones, including:

- 150,000+ registered users
- 6.5+ million meals logged
- A 4.8-star average rating across thousands of user reviews

Importantly, Amino will continue offering its free plan, allowing users to access the platform's core AI nutrition experience at no cost. Amino Pro is designed for users looking to unlock Amino's advanced capabilities and premium member benefits.

Amino Pro Includes:

Subscribers receive full access to Amino's premium experience, including:

- Unlimited meal logging
- AI processing up to 5x faster using Amino's most advanced AI models
- Personal AI Health Coach for personalized nutrition and wellness guidance
- Access to 30+ advanced nutrition metrics, including detailed carbohydrates (including fiber, sugar and net carbohydrates), detailed fats (including saturated and trans fats), vitamins (including A, B12, C and D), and minerals (including calcium, chloride, iron and magnesium)
- Nutrition trend analysis that identifies patterns and changes in your eating habits over time
- Eligibility for the monthly $500 Gift Card Sweepstakes, subject to applicable rules and eligibility requirements

- Exclusive member benefits including 2x Amino Points, priority support, and early access to select new features

The subscription experience is designed to provide users with faster AI responses, richer nutritional analysis, and increasingly personalized recommendations as they continue using the platform.

"We've always believed nutrition tracking should be effortless," said Andrew Shore, Chief Executive Officer of Boba Mint Holdings. "Amino Pro represents an important step in our long term strategy to build a sustainable AI consumer platform. We've spent years developing technology that removes the friction from healthy eating, and today we're introducing our first premium experience for users who want unlimited access, deeper health insights, substantially more nutrition data and more personalized coaching. Just as importantly, we'll continue investing in our free experience so anyone can benefit from Amino."

To celebrate the launch, Amino is introducing a limited-time introductory offer for early subscribers, giving existing community members an opportunity to access Amino Pro at a discounted launch price for a limited period.

Amino AI remains available as a free download on both the Apple App Store and Google Play, with Amino Pro offered as an optional premium subscription.
