MONUMENTAL MINERALS ACKNOWLEDGES THE GENERAL VOTE RESULTS ON THE CHILEAN CONSTITUTION

News Release - Vancouver, British Columbia – September 6, 2022: Monumental Minerals Corp. ("Monumental" or the "Company") (TSX-V: MNRL; FSE: BE5; OTCQB: MNMRF) acknowledges the September 4, 2022 vote by the citizens of Chile, electing not to support a proposed new constitution.

On September 4, 2022 citizens of Chile voted not to support the constitutional text proposed by the Constitutional Convention. Monumental Minerals will continue to engage and work with all stakeholders including governmental and indigenous groups in Chile. The Company will also continue to work within the framework and parameters of Chilean law and strongly believes in fairness and equality when doing so.

Jamil Sader, CEO and Director comments

"Chile's recent vote on a new constitution, and the respectful and fair way it was undertaken demonstrates the country's deep democratic roots, and a political system dedicated to fairness and transparency. Monumental looks forward to the continued positive engagement with all stakeholders on our lithium brine projects in the country."

Forward Looking Information

This news release contains "forward-looking information or statements" within the meaning of applicable securities laws, which may include, without limitation, the potential plans for the Company's projects, the timing, completion and expected outcomes of the next phase of exploration work on the Laguna Project, other statements relating to the technical, financial and business prospects of the Company, its projects and other matters. All statements in this news release, other than statements of historical facts, that address events or developments that the Company expects to occur, are forward-looking statements. Although the Company believes the expectations expressed in such forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, such statements are not guarantees of future performance and actual results may differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Such statements are based on numerous assumptions regarding present and future business strategies and the environment in which the Company will operate in the future, including the price of metals, the ability to achieve its goals, that general business and economic conditions will not change in a material adverse manner and that financing will be available if and when needed and on reasonable terms. Such forward-looking information reflects the Company's views with respect to future events and is subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions, including the risks and uncertainties relating to the interpretation of exploration results, risks related to the inherent uncertainty of exploration and cost estimates and the potential for unexpected costs and expenses and those other risks filed under the Company's profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com. While such estimates and assumptions are considered reasonable by the management of the Company, they are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive and regulatory uncertainties and risks. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward looking statements include, but are not limited to, continued availability of capital and financing and general economic, market or business conditions, failure to secure personnel and equipment for work programs, adverse weather and climate conditions, risks relating to unanticipated operational difficulties (including failure of equipment or processes to operate in accordance with specifications or expectations, cost escalation, unavailability of materials and equipment, government action or delays in the receipt of government approvals, industrial disturbances or other job action, and unanticipated events related to health, safety and environmental matters), risks relating to inaccurate geological assumptions, failure to maintain all necessary government permits, approvals and authorizations, failure to obtain surface access agreements or understandings from local communities, land owners or Indigenous groups, fluctuation in exchange rates, the impact of Covid-19 or other viruses and diseases on the Company's ability to operate, an inability to predict and counteract the effects of COVID-19 on the business of the Company, including but not limited to, the effects of COVID-19 on the price of commodities, capital market conditions, restriction on labour and international travel and supply chains, decrease in the price of rare earth elements, lithium, cesium and other metals, loss of key employees, consultants, or directors, failure to maintain community acceptance (including from the Indigenous communities), increase in costs, litigation, and failure of counterparties to perform their contractual obligations. The Company does not undertake to update forward-looking statements or forward-looking information, except as required by law.
