2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Statement of Compliance

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements (the "Interim Financial Statements") have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard ("IAS") 34 – Interim Financial Reporting.

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited annual consolidated financial statements of SAI as at and for the period ended January 31, 2025, and the notes thereto (the "Annual Financial Statements"). The interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a basis consistent with the accounting, estimation and valuation policies described in the Annual Financial Statements.

Unless otherwise noted, all amounts on the interim condensed consolidated financial statements are presented in United States dollars (“USD”), which is the functional currency of Sprout. The functional currencies of SAI and Sprout AI Australia PTY (“SAPTY”) are Canadian Dollars ("CAD") and Australian Dollars ("AUD"), respectively. The presentation currency of these consolidated financial statements is USD. During the nine-month ended on October 31, 2025 the loss of US$7,601 (2024 – gain of $17.717), for “Foreign exchange gains(loss)” value arose from payments and receipts in currencies other than USD, as well as from the update of the value in USD of the existing foreign currency balances as of the end of Q3.

These financial statements were authorized for issue by the Board of Directors on January 5, 2026.

Basis of consolidation

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of SAI and its wholly owned subsidiaries, SASA, SAPTY, and Beyond Farming Panamá, S.A.

Subsidiary	Place of Incorporation	Functional Currency	Year End Date
Sprout AI S.A.	Panama	USD	January 31
Sprout AI Australia PTY Ltd.	Australia	AUD	June 30
Beyond Farming Panama, S.A.	Panama	USD	December 31

A subsidiary is an entity controlled by SAI and is included in the interim condensed consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date the control ceases. The accounting policies of a subsidiary are changed where necessary to align them with policies adopted by the Company.

Inter-company balances and transactions, and any unrealized income and expenses arising from inter-company transactions, are eliminated in the preparation of these interim condensed consolidated financial statements.

Presentation and functional currency

All amounts on the interim condensed consolidated financial statements are presented in United States dollars (“USD”), which is the functional currency of Sprout and TIBC. The functional currencies of SAI is Canadian Dollars ("CAD") and SAPTY is Australian Dollars ("AUD"), respectively. The presentation currency of these interim condensed consolidated financial statements is USD.

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transaction. Foreign currency monetary items are translated at the period-end exchange rate. Non-monetary items measured at historical cost continue to be carried at the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Non-monetary items measured at fair value are reported at the exchange rate at the date when fair values were determined.

Significant accounting judgments and estimates

The preparation of these interim condensed consolidated financial statements is in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) and requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized prospectively from the period in which the estimates are revised. The following are the key estimates and assumption uncertainties that have a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment within the next financial period: expected life of tangible and intangible assets, valuation of financial assets, impairment of non-financial assets and share-based compensation.

The measurement of income taxes payable and deferred income tax assets and liabilities requires management to make judgments in the interpretation and application of the relevant tax laws. The actual amount of income taxes only becomes final upon filing and acceptance of the tax return by the relevant authorities, which occurs subsequent to the issuance of the annual financial statements. Judgment is also required in the determination of whether SAI will continue as a going concern.

(Expressed in US Dollars)

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on management's experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. However, actual outcomes can differ from these estimates.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company's material accounting policies under IFRS are presented in Note 2 to the Annual Financial Statements. Certain information and disclosures normally required to be included in the notes to the Annual Financial Statements prepared in accordance with IFRS have been condensed or omitted in the Interim condensed consolidated Financial Statement.

Accounting standards issued but not yet effective

Certain new accounting standards and interpretations have been published that are not mandatory for SAI's October 31, 2025 reporting period. Management does not expect these standards will have a significant impact on the measurement or presentation of balances or transactions as reported in these interim condensed consolidated financial statements. Accounting standards or amendments to existing accounting standards that have been issued but have future effective dates are as follows:

The difference of $167,682 has been recorded as a gain on lease modification in the consolidated statement of loss and comprehensive loss.

The premises is comprised of both a two-level open office concept as well as a warehouse designed for large-scale manufacturer, quality assurance, packaging, and shipping of Sprout AI directly to the Panama Canal. 18. REVENUE

Revenue from external customers is derived as product revenue earned from end users who purchase our goods through the Company's primary distributor, TheraCann International Benchmark Corporation (TIBC). Revenue may also be derived from storage of products on behalf of end users if the end user is not able to pay final balances prior to shipment. TIBC does not mark up the cost of the Company's goods. TIBC receives payment from end user to install, operate, and maintain SAI goods at the end user location. Freight costs of SAI goods are paid either by TIBC or the end user.

SAI recognizes product and storage on a gross basis.

Products are paid by non-refundable deposits. The percentage of deposit will vary depending on size of order, time to delivery order, and shipping constraints. Typically, orders are paid with a deposit to commence order, and the remaining balance due prior to shipment to the customer's chosen destination. Deferred revenue is recorded for the period of time between when the order is placed and when the order has been shipped to the customer's chosen destination. Storage is to be paid monthly and is due on receipt of invoice.

Other revenues are from management, consulting, and software development services and are recognized in accordance with their respective agreements.

Fair value adjustment on loan payable represents the difference between the loan proceeds received in March 2022 and the time value of money of the future repayments discounted at an inputted interest rate of 6% per annum.

19. SEGMENTED INFORMATION

The President and Chief Operating Officer regularly assess and make allocation decisions based on contracts and projects in progress in the geographic areas of operations. Based on the fact that operations are ramping up and in the early stages of the Company's existence, management has determined that it operates as a single operating division. For the year ended October 31, 2025, SAI derived Nil% (2024 - 100%) of revenue from related entities, which are controlled by an officer of the Company. As at October 31, 2025, 100% (2024 - 100%) of non-current assets (other than financial instruments) are located in Panama.

All warrants were excluded from the diluted weighted average number of common shares calculation as their effect would have been anti-dilutive.

22. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company’s financial instruments consist of cash, due from related parties, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, loan payable, related party loan payable and due to related parties. Unless otherwise noted, it is management’s opinion that SAI is not exposed to credit, liquidity or market risks arising from these financial instruments except as noted below.

Credit risk and economic dependence

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. SAI is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers and due from related parties. In order to reduce its credit risk, SAI has adopted credit policies which include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and regular review of their credit limits. As at October 31, 2025, Nil% (2024 - 100%) of the contracted revenues are from Nil (2024 - two) related companies.

As of October 31, 2025, SAI had $306,740 (2024- $303,315) of financial assets carried at amortized cost which were subject to expected credit loss assessment in accordance with IFRS 9. SAI has determined $Nil (2024 - $Nil) for the allowance for expected credit loss as the full balance is expected to be settled within 12 months. There is no history of default for those debtors.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that SAI will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. SAI has historically relied upon equity financing's to satisfy its capital requirements and will continue to depend heavily upon equity capital to finance its activities. There can be no assurance SAI will be able to obtain required financing in the future on acceptable terms. SAI anticipates it will need additional capital in the future to finance ongoing operations, such capital to be derived from the exercise of outstanding warrants and/or the completion of other equity financing's. SAI has limited financial resources, has no source of operating income and has no assurance that additional funding will be available to fund its operations, although SAI has been successful in the past in financing its activities through the sale of equity securities.

(Expressed in US Dollars)

The ability of SAI to arrange additional financing in the future will depend, in part, on the prevailing capital market conditions and operational success. There can be no assurance that continual fluctuations in price will not occur. Any quoted market for the common shares may be subject to market trends generally, notwithstanding any potential success of SAI in creating revenue, cash flows or earnings.

While SAI has been successful in securing parent company loans in the past, there is no assurance that it will be able to do so in the future. All SAI's liabilities, with the exception of the lease liabilities and non-current portion of the long-term debt, are due within the next 12 months.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: foreign currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk.

Foreign currency risk is the risk is the risk to the Company's earnings that arises from volatility in foreign exchange rates. SAI may have contracts with clients to receive fees in currencies other than its measurement currency. This may have an adverse effect on the value of future revenues and assets dominated in currencies other than the United States Dollars, absent any Company specific event.

Included in the undernoted accounts are the following Canadian dollar balances:

	October 31, 2025	January 31, 2025

Due from related parties	74,078	74,078
Account payable	339,512	456,037

(Expressed in US Dollars)

Other price risk

Other price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices, other than those arising from interest risk or currency risk. SAI is not exposed to any other price risk.

Fair value measurements of financial assets

Financial instruments that are measured subsequent to initial recognition at fair value are grouped in Levels 1 to 3 based on the degree to which the fair value is observable:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly; and Level 3 – Inputs that are not based on observable market data.

The fair value of SAI's receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, loan payable and due to/from related parties approximate their carrying value due to their short term in nature. The Company’s cash is measured at fair value using Level 1 inputs.

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

SAI manages share capital and capital stock reserve as capital. The objective when managing capital is to maintain adequate levels of funding to support the development of its business and maintain the necessary corporate and administrative functions to facilitate these activities. This is done primarily through equity financing. Future financing's are dependent on market conditions and there can be no assurance SAI will be able to raise funds in the future. There were no changes to SAI's approach to capital management since incorporation. SAI is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements. SAI does not currently have adequate sources of capital for the development of its business and will need to raise additional capital by obtaining equity financing through private placements or debt financing. SAI may raise additional debt or equity financing in the near future to meet its current obligations.

23. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

The following events occurred subsequent to the reporting period ended October 31, 2025, and up to the date the financial statements were authorized for issue. These events are considered non-adjusting events under IAS 10, as they relate to conditions that arose after the reporting date, but are material to an understanding of SAI's financial position, liquidity outlook, and corporate progression:

- Q3 2025 Events Continuing Into Q4 (August–October 2025)

On July 28, 2025, and as publicly disclosed via press release and filings on SEDAR+ and the Canadian Securities Exchange (CSE), the CSE confirmed that the proposed amalgamation transaction between SAI (SAI) and TheraCann International Benchmark Corp. (TIBC) does not constitute a “fundamental change” under CSE policies, as it does not result in a change of voting control, board composition, senior management, or the nature of the business carried on by SAI. As a result, the CSE confirmed that the transaction may proceed subject to completion of required filings, including a CSE Form 5A - Annual Summary, to be filed upon closing of the transaction.

During the period June 7, 2025 through September 30, 2025, TIBC initiated a final non-brokered private placement program targeting minimum gross proceeds of US$250,000 to offset uncollected proceeds from earlier 2025 financing rounds. In parallel, TIBC continued efforts to advance a broader post-amalgamation financing strategy targeting up to US$25 million in equity financing, in addition to the previously announced US$50 million share subscription facility with Global Emerging Markets (GEM), with the objective of having aggregate financing instruments of up to US$75 million available following public listing of the resulting issuer. As at the end of the reporting period, these financings had not yet been completed, but remain in process.

On July 8, 2025, TIBC announced that it had reached a settlement with K2 Principal Fund LP in respect of outstanding convertible debentures with an aggregate principal amount of $2,843,792, resulting in the cancellation of such debentures. The full terms of the settlement are subject to confidentiality provisions.

On October 10, 2025, TIBC executed a share purchase agreement for US$250,000 with a venture capital counterparty. The agreement included a right of first refusal to provide up to US$25 million in additional equity financing following completion of the amalgamation transaction. The US$250,000 subscription amount was contractually due on or before October 15, 2025. As at the date of authorization of these financial statements, the subscription amount had not been funded due to internal financing issues of the counterparty, unrelated to SAI, TIBC, or the proposed transaction. Management continues to pursue final collection of this amount.

On September 27, 2025, and continuing into Q4 2025, TIBC commenced civil proceedings in multiple jurisdictions to recover unpaid subscription proceeds in the principal amount of approximately $1.18 million, together with accrued interest and consequential damages. These proceedings arose following default under promissory note executed in July 2025. No recoveries had been recorded as at the date of authorization of these financial statements.

- Events Occurring After Q3 2025 (Post-October 31, 2025)

On December 1, 2025, TIBC executed a Strategic Alliance & Finder Agreement (SAFA) with AMISK Energy Solutions Ltd., a Canadian-based consortium. The agreement provides for conditional regional exclusivity, subject to AMISK delivering a minimum of two fully executed and financed projects within a rolling twelve-month period and meeting defined performance and compliance standards. Any exclusivity granted is limited by geography, subject to annual review, and revocable upon non-performance. Upon completion of the amalgamation, TIBC intends to transfer its rights and obligations under the SAFA to the resulting issuer, Beyond Farming International Inc. The purpose of the agreement is to support the identification, financing, and development of future projects in Canada.

In addition, subsequent to the reporting period, TIBC continued to advance discussions with international development and financing partners in the Middle East, including parties associated with potential multi-project development initiatives in the United Arab Emirates. These discussions remain subject to execution of definitive agreements and project-level approvals.
