Management Discussion and Analysis

For the year ended July 31, 2023

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial conditions and results of operations (the "MD&A") has been prepared by management and provides a review of the activities, results of operations and financial condition of KP3993 Resources Inc. (the "Company" or "KP3993").

This discussion dated November 28, 2023, complements and supplements the Company's audited financial statements and associated notes for the year ended July 31, 2023, and should be read in conjunction with the audited annual financial statements for the year ended July 31, 2023. Please also refer to the cautionary statement of forward-looking information at the end of this document. All financial information in this MD&A is prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and reported in Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted. Additional information about the Company is available under the Company's profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

1. COMPANY OVERVIEW

KP3993 was incorporated pursuant to the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act on July 2, 2021. The Company has applied for status as a Capital Pool Company ("CPC") as defined pursuant to Policy 2.4 of the TSX Venture Exchange ("TSX Venture"). On January 17, 2022, the Company completed its IPO and that its shares were listed for trading on the TSXV. The Company's head office is located at Suite 2209 - 1111 Alberni Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6E 4V2.

As at July 31, 2023, the Company has no business operations. As a CPC, the Company's principal business objective will be to identify and evaluate assets, properties or businesses with a view to a potential acquisition or participation by completing a Qualifying Transaction subject, in certain cases, to shareholders' approval and acceptance by the TSXV. There is no assurance that the Company will identify and successfully acquire businesses or assets that will produce a profit. Moreover, if a potential business or asset is identified which warrants acquisition or participation, additional funds may be required to complete the acquisition or participation and the Company may not be able to obtain such financing on terms which are satisfactory to the Company.

2. INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING

On January 17, 2022, the Company completed its Initial Public Offering ("IPO") of 2,500,000 common shares at $0.10 per share ($250,000). The Company paid a cash commission of 7% of the gross proceeds to Research Capital Corp. (the "Agent"), and granted the Agent warrants to acquire 7% of the common shares issued in the IPO exercisable for a period ending 24 months from the closing of the IPO, exercisable at $0.10 per share. The Company also paid a corporate finance fee and reimbursed the Agent for legal fees and other reasonable expenses incurred pursuant to the IPO. Cash issuance costs of $75,968 were associated with these issuances and the value attributed to warrants granted to the Agent is $9,243.

3. RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

During the year ended July 31, 2023, the Corporation operated as a Capital Pool Company.

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

described below are not the only ones facing the Company. Additional risks not presently known to us may also impair the business operations.

(a) The Company was only recently incorporated, has not commenced commercial operations and has no assets other than cash. It has no history of earnings, and shall not generate earnings or pay dividends until at least after Completion of the Qualifying Transaction;

(b) until Completion of a Qualifying Transaction, the Company is not permitted to carry on any business other than the identification and evaluation of potential Qualifying Transactions;

(c) the Company has only limited funds with which to identify and evaluate potential Qualifying Transactions and there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to identify a suitable Qualifying Transaction;

(d) even if a proposed Qualifying Transaction is identified, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to successfully complete the transaction;

(e) Completion of the Qualifying Transaction is subject to a number of conditions including acceptance by the Exchange and, in the case of a Non Arm's Length Qualifying Transaction, Majority of the Minority Approval.

Ability to Raise Funds

As at July 31, 2023, the Company had positive working capital of $304,217, has limited financial resources, and there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or that the terms of such financing will be favourable.

Markets for Securities

There can be no assurance that an active trading market in the securities will be established and sustained. The market price for the securities could be subject to wide fluctuations. Factors such as commodity prices, government regulation, interest rates, share price movements of the peer companies and competitors, as well as overall market movements, may have a significant impact on the market price of the securities of the Company.

Reliance on Key Individuals

The success depends to a certain degree upon certain key members of the management. It is expected that these individuals will be a significant factor in the Company's growth and success. The loss of the service of members of the management and certain key employees could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

7. INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. Any system of internal control over financial reporting, no matter how well designed, has inherent limitations and may not prevent or detect misstatements. Therefore, even those systems determined to be effective can only provide reasonable assurance with respect to financial statement preparation and presentation. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies and procedures may deteriorate.

8. CRITICAL JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with IFRS. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. The critical judgment that the Company's management has made in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies that has the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the Company's financial statements is related to the assumption that the Company will continue as a going concern. For a summary of significant accounting policies, please refer to Note 3 of the financial statements. Management believes it has made estimates that best reflect the facts and circumstances; however, actual results may differ from estimates.

9. FORWARD- LOOKING INFORMATION

Certain statements contained in this MD&A constitute forward-looking information within the meaning of securities laws. Forward-looking information may relate to our future outlook and anticipated events or results and may include statements regarding the future financial position, business strategy, budgets, litigation, projected costs, capital expenditures, financial results, taxes and plans and objectives of or involving the Company. Particularly, statements regarding our future operating results and economic performance are forward-looking statements. In some cases, forward-looking information can be identified by terms such as "may", "will", "should", "expect", "plan", "anticipate", "believe", "intend", "estimate", "predict", "potential", "continue" or other similar expressions concerning matters that are not historical facts. Examples of such statements include the Company's intention to complete a "Qualifying Transaction" (as defined by policy 2.4 (the "CPC Policy") of TSX Venture Exchange Inc. (the "Exchange")). Forward-looking information is subject to certain factors, including risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ materially from what we currently expect. These factors include the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing and complete a Qualifying Transaction. Forward-looking information contained in this MD&A is based on our current estimates, expectations and projections, which we believe are reasonable as of the current date. The Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly or otherwise revise any forward-looking information, except as required by law.
