NEWS RELEASE

ECC VENTURES 6 CORP. PROVIDES FURTHER UPDATE ON PROPOSED QT TO ACQUIRE LCM ENERGY

NOT FOR DISSEMINATION IN THE UNITED STATES OR FOR DISTRIBUTION TO U.S. NEWSWIRE SERVICES.

September 30, 2025 – Vancouver, BC, Canada. ECC Ventures 6 Corp. (the “Company”) (TSX-V: ECCS.P) further to its press release on September 17, 2025, is pleased to provide a further update to its previously announced proposed acquisition (the “Acquisition”), through its wholly-owned subsidiary, 1428703 B.C. Ltd. (“Acquireco”), of all of the issued and outstanding share capital of LCM Energy Solution Inc. (“LCMBC”). The Acquisition will constitute a reverse take-over and the Company’s qualifying transaction under the policies of the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”), subject to approval of the Exchange. Upon closing, ECC6 will change its name to LCM Energy Solution Inc. and will be listed as a technology issuer.

About LCM Energy Solution

LCMBC is a private British Columbia holding company incorporated on October 13, 2022. LCMBC’s principal asset is its wholly owned subsidiary, LCM Energy Solution (Korea) Inc., a private company incorporated pursuant to the laws of South Korea (“LCM Korea”). Pursuant to a share exchange agreement, on March 15, 2023, LCMBC and LCM Korea completed a business combination. As of December 31, 2024 (unaudited), LCMBC, on a consolidated basis, has current assets of $315,953, fixed assets of $7,083,849, current liabilities of $4,439,229, long term liabilities of $4,671,332, and a working capital deficit of $4,123,276, and for the year ended December 31, 2024 (unaudited) had $23,611 in sales revenue and incurred a net and comprehensive loss of $1,423,932, including research & development costs of $106,255.

Seul Chan and Jin Kyung Jeong, residents of Busan, Korea, own 46,725,000 and 44,051,667 common shares of LCMBC, respectively, representing 37.80% and 35.63% of LCMBC’s 123,625,000 currently issued and outstanding common shares, respectively. The remaining common shares of LCMBC are widely held.

LCM Korea’s principal activities focus on three green energy technologies:

- (1) LCM Korea has developed and has several pending and full patents relating to bidirectional vertical small wind power generation systems. These hybrid power generation systems combine small wind turbines with a solar power module and LCM Korea’s proprietary slip-ring, a core component for wind power systems that replaces traditional mercury-type slip rings that cause environmental pollution;
- (2) LCM Korea has developed customized lithium battery solutions for various industries such as E-mobility, Energy Storage Systems, and special market sectors, such as the military & defense market. Together with its hardware technology for cell & battery pack design, manufacturing and assembly, LCM Korea is also developing a software platform for integrated management for optimal operation of secondary battery equipped vehicles, vessels, drones, machines and other devices; and

(3) LCM Korea has developed and has several patents relating to solar street lighting systems.

The Acquisition

The parties have agreed to certain amendments to the terms of the Acquisition pursuant to an amended and restated amalgamation agreement dated September [●], 2025 (the “Amalgamation Agreement”). Pursuant to the Amalgamation Agreement, the Acquisition will be completed by way of an amalgamation pursuant to which, inter alia, (i) the shareholders of LCMBC will be issued an aggregate of 49,450,000 Resulting Issuer Shares (as defined below) at a deemed price of $0.45 per Resulting Issuer Share in exchange for their common shares of LCMBC; and (ii) Acquireco and LCMBC will amalgamate and become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Resulting Issuer (as defined below). It is anticipated that certain of the Resulting Issuer Shares issued as consideration for the Acquisition will be subject to escrow and resale restrictions pursuant to the policies of the Exchange.

Upon closing of the Acquisition, current securityholders of ECC6 are expected to own: (i) 5,650,000 Resulting Issuer Shares, 2,000,000 of such Resulting Issuer Shares which are expected to be subject to escrow provisions pursuant to the policies of the Exchange; (ii) 565,000 stock options, each exercisable at $0.10 per Resulting Issuer Share until one year from closing of the Acquisition, subject to the provisions of the Company’s stock option plan, and (ii) 200,000 agent’s options, each exercisable at $0.10 per Resulting Issuer Share until December 17, 2026.

The Company will also issue 2,472,500 Resulting Issuer Shares to an arm’s length party, Golden Gate Capital Inc., as a finder’s fee in connection with the Acquisition, at a deemed price of $0.45 per Resulting Issuer Share. Payment of the finder’s fee remains subject to Exchange acceptance.

Assuming closing of the QT Financing (as defined below) for gross proceeds of $3,100,000, Seul Chan and Jin Kyung Jeong, will own 18,690,000 and 17,620,667 common shares of the Resulting Issuer, respectively, representing 28.99% and 27.34% of the Resulting Issuer’s 64,461,722 then issued and outstanding common shares, respectively. The remaining common shares of the Resulting Issuer will be widely held.

Financing

As a condition to completing the Acquisition, the parties intend to complete a non-brokered private placement financing (the “QT Financing”) of subscription receipts of Acquireco (the “Subscription Receipts”), to raise minimum gross proceeds of $3,100,000, through the issuance of a minimum of 6,888,889 Subscription Receipts at a price of $0.45 per Subscription Receipt.

The proceeds of the QT Financing will be held in escrow, pending the Company receiving all applicable regulatory approvals, and completing all matters and conditions relating to the Acquisition. Immediately prior to the completion of the Acquisition, on satisfaction of the escrow conditions, each Subscription Receipt will automatically be exchanged for, without payment of any further consideration and with no further action on the part of the holder thereof, one (1) common share of Acquireco (each, a “Acquireco Share”), and immediately thereafter, each Acquireco Share issuable upon conversion of the Subscription Receipts will be exchanged for one common share (each, a “Resulting Issuer Share”) of the issuer resulting from the Acquisition (the “Resulting Issuer”) in connection with the Acquisition. In the event that the Acquisition is not completed, each Subscription Receipt will be cancelled, and the subscription funds will be returned to the subscribers. The Company may pay a commission in connection with the QT Financing, in accordance with the policies of the Exchange. Once released from escrow, the Resulting Issuer will use the proceeds of the QT Financing for commercialization of its products, and for general working capital purposes.

All securities issued by the Resulting Issuer in connection with the QT Financing will be free trading upon completion of the Acquisition.

Resulting Issuer Board and Management

Upon completion of the Acquisition, the Resulting Issuer's board of directors and management team will be reconstituted to include the following directors and management:

Leveraging a 30-year track record of expertise in technology and technology-based products and services marketing, Mr. Son is a seasoned CMO who has a proven reputation well known for helping companies introduce radically different go-to-market approaches, hone their strategic positioning and disrupt existing markets. He is an expert commissioner of Secondary Battery 3.0 Link Business Division/ICC and Professional Commissioner of Energy Valley Forum in Korea. Mr. Son is a graduate of the Graduate College of Education, Seoul National University.

A copy of the Amalgamation Agreement will be filed and will be accessible under ECC6's profile on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca), and in connection with the Acquisition and pursuant to the requirements of the Exchange, ECC6 will also file on SEDAR+ a filing statement which will contain details regarding the Acquisition, ECC6, LCMBC, LCM Korea and the Resulting Issuer.

The Acquisition is not a Non-Arm's Length Qualifying Transaction under the policies of the Exchange and therefore is not expected to require approval of ECC6's shareholders. Sponsorship of a qualifying transaction of a capital pool company is required by the Exchange unless an exemption from sponsorship requirement is available. ECC6 intends to apply for a waiver from sponsorship requirements. However, there is no assurance that ECC6 will obtain this waiver.

Completion of the Acquisition is subject to a number of conditions, including approval of the Exchange, completion of the QT Financing and the satisfaction of other customary closing conditions. Trading of ECC6's common shares will remain halted pending further filings with the Exchange.
